UAW Strike Threat Due Ford Today

Union Expected To Set Monday As Walkout Deadline

BULLETIN
DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers Union today set a strike deadline of 10 a. m. (EST) Friday at the Ford Motor Co. in new contract bargaining.

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers union was expected to threaten Ford Motor Co. with a strike deadline today in new contract bargaining.

If a deadline is set, most guesses were that it would be Monday.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther said at midnight Tuesday a decision would be reached overnight on whether to set a strike deadline.

In answer to a question he said, "I think it would be overly optimistic" to forecast a settlement could come at Ford today, even with around-the-clock marathon bargaining.

The old Ford-UAW contract, written in 1961, is cancelable now on 48 hours notice. So, a union source pointed out, if notice were given today a strike couldn't begin legally until Friday.

"With a work week ending," this source said, "Walter is too smart to lose the dramatic effect a work stoppage could cause at the beginning of a work week, say 10 a.m. Monday, when everybody could walk off the job all across the country."

"But," he added, "with every company just now rolling with 1965 models and most all scheduled Saturday overtime, it could come Friday, except, I don't think so, not with a Chrysler strike a possibility then, too."

The UAW placed Chrysler under a new strike threat Tuesday, although Reuther announced only a week ago today that "an historic labor agreement worth 54 cents an hour" had been wrapped up there.

Although he failed to mention it at the time, the national economic agreement Reuther announced covered only hourly rated production and maintenance employees at Chrysler. Agreement since has been worked out regarding parts depot workers.

Douglas Fraser, UAW Chrysler department chief, served notice Tuesday that some 7,000 salaried office and engineering personnel represented by the union would walk out on Chrysler Friday at 10 a.m. unless agreement came by then on a new national contract for them.

WASHINGTON (AP) — New strike talk threatened today to break the nation's uneasy railroad labor peace that followed last April's extraordinary White House settlement.

800 At GOP Rally Stronger Policy Asked By Taft On Foreign Imports

LISBON — Republican Bob Taft Jr. Tuesday night urged adoption of a more firm trade policy to "insulate American companies from unfair competition" when he spoke to an estimated 800 at the Columbiana County Republican rally at the County Fairgrounds.

"All of us in Congress want to see American exports increased; we recognize that thriving trade can ease our gold drain problems and, at the same time, produce more new jobs for our domestic economy."

"BUT MANY of us are opposed to a trade policy which, because undue emphasis is placed upon certain foreign policy considerations, actually bars these benefits."

Taft observed, however, that the incumbent administration has been reluctant to press firm demands at the trade bargaining table "for fear we might offend someone."

The Ohio congressman - at large, who is Republican nominee for the U. S. Senate, noted: "The administration's trade policy is a replica of its policy on foreign affairs — we amble aimlessly down the avenue of accommodation."

Taft said two important Ohio industries — tile and pottery — would be imperiled if American representatives at the Geneva agreement on Trade and Tariffs

President's Aid Eyed On Major Bills

Action Sought On Aid, Appalachia And Health Care

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic congressional leaders are looking to President Johnson for help in getting three major segments of his program moving on Capitol Hill.

The President, off today on a Western trip, was reported to have discussed with leaders by phone Tuesday methods of leapfrogging a legislative reapportionment roadblock in the Senate that has stalled action on his foreign aid and Appalachian aid measures.

Leaders also were looking to him for suggestions on how to salvage the health care program passed by the Senate. It was sent by the House to an uncertain fate in a Senate-House conference committee named to iron out differences in its parent Social Security measure.

Johnson was confronted with a situation in which he would need all of his often-touted persuasive powers to save any or all of the measures from a stalemate that threatened to keep the election year Congress in session indefinitely. Senate Democratic leaders said it might last until Nov. 1.

There were indications that if he has to choose, Johnson would prefer the $1 billion aid program for 11 states touched by the Appalachian ranges where there are areas of deep economic distress.

Johnson, who toured some of the areas earlier in the year, made some firm promises that he would act to aid them. He stands to lose face — and votes — if that pledge goes unfulfilled.

The Appalachian bill, however, is stuck behind the bogged-down foreign aid measure. Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen has offered a rider to the aid bill to stay for a year or more court-ordered reapportionment of both houses of state legislatures on a population basis.

Senate liberals, directed by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, Johnson's vice-presidential running mate, lost 42 to 40 an attempt to substitute a compromise Tuesday. It would have advised the courts to give adequate time for reapportionment but would not have attempted to compel them to do so.

At West End Intersection Violent Crash Injures 4

A Fisher Park motorist and a Lisbon area trio remained in hospitals today with injuries suffered in a violent collision at the intersection of W. 8th St. and Lisbon St. late Tuesday afternoon.

Edward Derr, 52, of N. Shady Lane Dr., executive vice president of Bloor Pharmacies, was in "fair" condition at City Hospital with possible fractures of the ribs, along with chest and spine injuries.

Vote Clears Funds For 4 Buildings

$4.3 Million Plan Receives 'Go Ahead' On Special Ballot

A $4.3 million building program for construction of a new senior high school and three consolidated elementary buildings was approved by East Liverpool School District voters in a special election Tuesday.

The complete but unofficial count in the 43 precincts was:

For the issue	3,165
Opposed	2,832

Only a majority was required for passage of the $3,380,000 bond issue and half-mill tax levy to repay a $990,958 interest-free state loan. It received a 52.6 per cent favorable vote.

A big share of credit for approval of the Board of Education program, which will cost taxpayers $4.65 more for each $1,000 valuation on the tax duplicate, must go to residents of Liverpool Township and three precincts in St. Clair Township.

City Margin Narrow
The proposition squeaked through by six-tenths of one per cent in the city's 34 precincts with 2,384 voters in favor and 2,322 opposed.

It carried only 16 of the 34 precincts, winning the Second Ward by a 139-vote margin and the Third Ward by 35 votes.

The combined bond issue and tax levy was defeated in both the First and Fourth Wards. Here's the vote by wards:

First	502 and 522
Second	924 and 785
Third	410 and 375
Fourth	548 and 640

However, it was approved in all six Liverpool Township precincts with 565 voters in favor and 363 opposed, a vote of almost 61 per cent.

St. Clair Favorable
The issue also was approved in two of three St. Clair precincts with a total vote of 216

Racks Up 2 Firsts Johnson Starts 1st Major Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, embarking on his first major trip of the campaign season, racks up a couple of firsts today — by touching foreign soil and by traveling in a foreign plane.

Johnson, who will be gone from Washington two days on a Western foray labeled nonpolitical by the White House, flies first to Great Falls, Mont., to be picked up by Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson of Canada.

The two men were to fly to Vancouver, British Columbia, aboard the prime minister's American-made Jetstar transport — twin to the Air Force craft frequently used by the President in his American travels.

Veterans around the White House could remember no previous occasion on which an American president agreed to travel aboard an airplane of a foreign government.

Johnson's trip to Vancouver marks his first venture outside the United States.

Johnson's meeting with Pearson was arranged ostensibly to jointly commemorate implementation of an American-Canadian treaty aimed at orderly development of the Columbia River Basin. It also provides some campaign-season exposure in a nonpolitical light.

The chief executive's trip Tuesday to politically doubtful Florida was his second in five days.

Republican National Chairman Dean Burch lost no time in labeling the "nonpolitical" journey "an improper use of taxpayers' money." He said Johnson's speech to the Machinists Union convention was "purely political and sought to gain votes" for the President.

At Miami Beach, the machinists gave Johnson a big greeting and he plugged for a stronger Social Security program which would include medical care for the elderly.

Then the President flew 200 miles north and stopped off en route back to Washington at Cape Kennedy. He inspected some of the space facility and plugged for the administration's space program.

After his flight to Vancouver with Pearson, Johnson and the prime minister drive to Blaine, Wash., a border town, for the treaty ceremonies. Then they part and the President flies on to Seattle for an evening speech sponsored by three local universities and the Seattle Chamber of Commerce.

Thursday Johnson will go to Portland for a breakfast speech, then to Sacramento, Calif., to see Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown and make a speech from the steps of the state Capitol.

Aides to Johnson said possible other stops on the return flight from Sacramento to Washington would be announced in Seattle. There have been rumors of possible appearances in Denver and at the National Plowing Contest in North Dakota.

3 Defendants Indicted By Hancock Jury

The Hancock County Grand Jury moved swiftly through a one-day session Tuesday at the courthouse in New Cumberland, returning six indictments against only three defendants — a record low.

Headed by Carl Bender of Weirton, the jury delivered four felonies and two misdemeanor indictments against the three defendants, all from Weirton.

Heading the list was one felony and two misdemeanor indictments against Jerry Jeter, 37, accused in the shooting June 17 of David Barnes, 16, of Steubenville while in the 2700 block of Weirton Ave.

Two misdemeanor counts against Jeter accuse him of discharging a .25-caliber pistol within 500 feet of a dwelling.

Challenges Johnson Barry Pressing For Dixie Votes

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Tuesday to the International Association of Machinists in Miami.

Sen. Barry Goldwater pressed his hunt for Republican votes in the Deep South today, challenging President Johnson to tell the American people where he stands on Communist Cuba.

The Republican presidential nominee raised that point in a speech prepared for delivery here, in a state with a built-in political question mark.

The question: How will Tennessee react to the Arizona senator who has called for the sale of big portions of the giant Tennessee Valley Authority.

Goldwater has said TVA steam-operated power plants, sold to the authority's fertilizer program, should be sold to states or communities, to private industry or to a special corporation. Other TVA operations, he said, should be put in the hands of federal agencies that operate similar programs elsewhere.

Goldwater's other stops today on the second of a four-day Southern campaign swing: Memphis and River Bluff, Tenn., Macon, Ga., and Montgomery, Ala.

Goldwater tied into Johnson on the Cuba question by accusing him of "blue-pencil attempts to delete political mistakes" from a speech he delivered

32 At Chester Complain On Fast Driving

Petition Presented Council; Action By Police Chief Urged
Complaints of traffic violations were again aired by Chester City Council Tuesday night when Councilman Richard Johnston presented a petition signed by 32 residents asking that speed limits be enforced.

The Second Ward councilman presented a petition signed by 32 residents of the 3rd St. hill complaining of speeding motorists, and Johnston commented he feels the situation is "serious."

Inquiring about the radar system, he was advised by Mayor Harry Abrams that the equipment is presently not in working condition and is being repaired by Police Chief Harold Davis.

Johnston asked that Chief Davis patrol the 3rd St. area

Officer Quits; Chester Sets Applications

Chester Council began receiving applications today for the post of full-time patrolman in the Police Department after receiving the resignation of Clifford L. Bebout at Tuesday night's meeting.

Appointed in January, Bebout submitted a written resignation in which he expressed regret at leaving, but felt it was in the best interests of himself and his family.

The officer began a new job at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co. Monday.

Councilman Donald Hissam moved the resignation be accepted, adding "we wish him luck on his new job." Walter

52 Residents Opposed Wellsville Council Tables One-Way Traffic Plans

Wellsville City Council Tuesday night tabled the controversial legislation to create one-way traffic on Commerce St. between 9th and 15th Sts. for a 90-day trial period.

The action came after Council was presented a petition containing the names of 52 persons opposing the measure.

The legislation was to have been given second reading last night. It will be presented again at the next meeting Oct. 6. It passed first reading by a 6-1 vote at the meeting two weeks ago. The plan had been delayed previously because of some opposition.

THE PETITION was presented by Jim Faloon of Commerce St. during the personal privilege period at the outset of the session. Faloon commented that Councilman Nunzio Lombardozzi had reported Sterling China Co. officials were for a one-way plan but that both William T. Pomeroy, president of Sterling, and William T. Pomeroy Jr. of Wellsville China Co. had signed his petition.

Others in the past have claimed the one-way would create a speeding hazard and some contended it would hurt their businesses.

Rocco J. Zirrillo, 1019 Commerce, said he was in on the original plan to make Commerce St. one-way. He said a group of the residents approached Lombardozzi with the proposal.

Lombardozzi then made a sur-

Drive-In Type Restaurant To Cost $80,000

Sale of a corner tract on E. 3rd St. to Albert Gloeckner, as the site of a new drive-in type restaurant costing between $70,000 and $80,000, was announced today by W. E. Kaiser of the Pete Kaiser Real Estate Agency.

The 120-foot square tract lies at the corner of E. 3rd and College Sts., near the former American Paper Products Co. building, which is also owned by Gloeckner.

The realtor said Gloeckner plans to raze two houses on the site and grade it to the level of E. 3rd St., preparatory to erection of the restaurant.

To be known as "Sandy's," the drive-in will operate on a 24-hour daily schedule. Inside seating, Gloeckner expects to employ 20 or more.

Gloeckner purchased the property through the realtor from Kaywood Properties, Inc. The transaction was consummated Tuesday.

Gloeckner also owns Al's Atlantic service on E. 3rd St., where 40 are employed.

Spittoon Gets Blame For Minor Accident

A spittoon, which apparently started to topple over, was blamed for a minor mishap Tuesday afternoon on Pennsylvania Ave. near Park Way.

Lynwood Wilson, 52, of 2100 Crawford Ave. told officers he was headed west when the spittoon on the floor of his car moved toward his right foot.

While attempting to straighten it, Wilson's car bumped the rear of a halted car operated by Larry F. Watson, 23, of 1031 Pennsylvania Ave.

There was minor damage to the bumper of the Watson hardtop and the chrome strip and hood of Wilson's coupe, police said.

The Challenge Has Been Met

Those who voted "For" in Tuesday's special election in the East Liverpool School District more than met the challenge.

Thanks to their farsightedness and civic-mindedness in approving a $4.3 million building program, the days of our remaining outmoded schools are numbered and in their place will rise a new high school and three new elementary buildings.

How much brighter the future for our youngsters in an educational sense!

Residents of the school district are to be commended for showing their willingness to accept additional responsibility when necessary for what they consider the over-all good.

Tuesday's voting demonstrates once more what can be accomplished when a determined majority join in a common cause.

Now that the construction program has been authorized by the voters, it is up to members of the Board of Education and the school administrators to use the soundest judgment in handling of the money entrusted to their care.

Those who are footing the bill are entitled to the maximum return on their investment.

Ohio Keeps Apace

Ohio's development director, George L. Wilson, has compiled figures on the state's industrial growth under the Rhodes administration.

The statistics are heartening. Between January 1963 and June 1964, according to the Wilson figures, Ohio industry added 267,600 workers to the labor force and subtracted 99,800 from the unemployment total in approximately the same period — January 1963 to the present.

The Wilson report asserts that 404 new firms located in Ohio during the first year of the Rhodes administration and 1,631 firms expanded. Sixty-five communities organized local improvement corporations during this time and hundreds of meetings were held.

Contacts were made with 800 companies about locating or expanding in Ohio and at present there are 197 active prospects.

Other state administrations are doing the same thing the Rhodes administration is doing. That is, in fact, why the Rhodes administration has made a special point of its efforts. Ohio was letting competitors steal a march on it in active bidding for job-making enterprise.

In order to stay where it was, Ohio needed to run faster and faster. In order to get an advantage, Ohio needed to out-distance the competition.

Whether it is doing that no one knows. No one ever can know how successful the development program in Ohio is because no one ever can know how much development there would have been without a program.

Blood On The Maple Leaves

When President Lyndon B. Johnson and Canada's Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson met together today for a ceremony marking approval by their two countries of the Columbia River Basin Treaty, they probably will exchange views on dealing with difficult lawmakers.

In the U.S. Senate, a reapportionment rider to the foreign aid bill has been holding up adjournment of Congress even though members are anxious to get back home and into campaigns for re-election.

In Canada, the debate is over Prime Minister Pearson's controversial proposal for a maple leaf flag for Canada. In Ottawa, the debate raged 22 days in the House of Commons before the Prime Minister appeared last Thursday to say a committee representing all parties would take up the matter behind closed doors. The committee is to report back in six weeks.

Pearson's proposed adoption of a maple leaf flag as a means of unifying Canada's English-speaking and French-speaking populations has turned into a "tiger-by-the-tail" act with Pearson not daring to let go.

Behind the oratory over what design or national symbol Canada should adopt is a struggle for political dominance and power between Mr. Pearson and former Prime Minister John Diefenbaker. Which ever wins the flag fight will have a big advantage in the next election.

Mr. Pearson nailed his flag to the administration's mast last May. It consists of three red maple leaves on a field of white, with a vertical blue bar at each side. It is intended to supercede the Red Ensign that has been the unofficial Canadian flag since World War II.

Mr. Diefenbaker's position is that the question should be submitted to the people in a plebiscite or, alternatively, that it should be submitted to a Parliamentary committee. However, he rejected Mr. Pearson's counter-suggestion that such a committee be required to report within a set period and subsequent House debate be limited.

Apparently Mr. Pearson has emerged with a temporary victory in setting a time limit of six weeks on the report. With all parties represented on the committee, it is a safe bet that a deal will be worked out and Mr. Diefenbaker will gain some share of victory.

No matter how often I see it, an airliner gliding down out of the night sky to a waiting airport is a spine-tingling sight that makes me wonder if it's really happening or will I wake up from a boyhood dream.

I wish all play actors would stay out of sight when not working at their trade. It bothers me to have a he-man character pop up in a dinner jacket doing song-and-dance-man fluffery.

I am as interested in what is going to happen in Viet Nam as most people, except I have made up my mind what is going to happen. My government or the government of the Chinese People's Republic will pull out — and Viet Nam is in China's back yard, which seems to settle which one will pull out.

I can make a strong case against pushing potential voters to the polls, because I suspect any American who needs pushing shouldn't be voting. He hasn't been keeping track of things. Someone's pushing him for a special reason.

I hope parents of little kiddies have quit telling the horror story about the Pied Piper of Hamelin and are terrifying their offspring with the creepy tale of the Baffled Beatles of Liverpool.

Show me a parent supporting a school boycott and I'll show you a parent who doesn't care about education but will fight to the last ditch to preserve his adult right to be a nuisance.

This is the year of cliff-hangers. Will LBJ tap Hubert H. Humphrey for the Democratic vice presidential nomination? Will UAW emerge from its bargaining with another "historic" contract held on high? What other way could it have turned out?

These looting outbursts everybody decries in connection with student riots are scary. They signify a breakdown in personal and group discipline. Nothing like it happened before, except when we kids used to spread out and raid the five-and-dime back home—and don't tell me we are unique.

I don't understand the psychology of pro football teams that maim the quarterbacks who are the bread and butter of pro football. Without these specialists, pro football would be as dull as most college football—five yards and a cloud of dust, so what?

Tougher And Tougher To Concentrate

Johnson By-Passes Labor

By Victor Riesel

Lyndon Johnson has pulled his first political boner of this skittish season. The error was made when the President failed to name a labor leader as one of the 16 distinguished citizens whom he will consult on international affairs when new crises flare abroad. Insiders were surprised when Mr. Johnson by-passed AFL-CIO president George Meany—whose effective, relentless international anti-Communist operations have made him N.S. Khrushchev's pet hate.

If there is any unanimity among the Soviet and Chinese Communist leaders, it's in their common enmity toward this unflinching man. There is reason for their distaste. Meany has thrown the power and finances of the American labor movement against them on a global front, reaching from Santiago, Chile, to Saigon. Successfully, too.

MORE RECENTLY Meany and some of his colleagues in the AFL-CIO International Dept. helped smash the Communists' political offensive in Chile. For years, as I reported when I was there in '63, the Chilean Communist party, oldest in the world, has been planning to take power with the "via pacifica"—the peaceful road through the ballot.

The Communist Party of Chile is wealthy. I found it operating movie houses, businesses, printing presses and even a taxi fleet. The knowledgeable anti-Communists were virtually without sufficient money even for a routine campaign in the presidential race earlier this month.

Under Meany's leadership American labor—working through the Inter-American Regional Organization of Workers (ORIT)—helped to send speakers, literature, money and strategists into Chile. Though the Communists rolled up almost one million votes, they were beaten. Thus more than 50 years of Communist concentration was balked, at least for another six years.

Furthermore, guided by Meany, labor and American businessmen have organized the American Institute For Free Labor Development (AIFLD).

LED BY MEANY and such industrialists as J. Peter Grace, Jr., AIFLD has raised tens of millions of dollars to build decent housing for working people all the way down the line from Mexico City to Buenos Aires. Thus it has become a terrific anti-Castro force by proving that we Americans have a heart as well as a purse.

Within a few hours after the anti-Communist revolution succeeded in smashing the Communist apparatus in Brazil, the new leaders asked American labor specialists to fly down to Rio and help resurrect an anti-Communist labor movement. Thus a Soviet-Castro-Chinese Communist labor counteroffensive was choked off.

But Latin America and the Caribbean are not the only fronts into which Meany has thrown U.S. labor influence. Just last week, for example, Meany dispatched Dave Sullivan, president of the Building Service Employees' International Union, as a fraternal delegate to the conference of the Socialist, British Trades Union Congress.

Meany and Sullivan agreed that the time had come to talk bluntly to the English labor leaders who believe the United States is making "too much of a fuss over Castro." Sullivan, a transplanted Irishman, proved to them that the United States had not mellowed him.

SULLIVAN GOT UP in that big hall in Blackpool, England, and let them have it. He told them that "Castro's Cuba is still a most dangerous center for the subversion of all Latin America."

He was booed. But he continued with an attack on the Communist terror in British Guiana, where scores of anti-Communist unionists have been killed in recent rioting. The Communists there, Sullivan said, "have all the makings of another very grave threat to the freedom of all Latin America and to the peace of the world." More boos.

Sullivan is but one of American labor's emissaries dispatched to challenge Communism. There is also the globe-hopping Irving Brown who has just returned from Viet Nam, where Meany sent him to help the labor movement. This is a vital move in the duel between the Chinese Communists and the anti-Communist world for the hearts and minds of the Vietnamese people.

Thus, on every continent on which I've been, from the devastated European nations of postwar Europe to the Chinese-inhabited lands of Africa, I have found Meany's colleagues in action—often sabotaged and insulted by representatives of softer labor leaders of other lands.

FOR YEARS democratic labor leaders, some now heads of state, have been backed by American labor—some 24 per cent of whose funds are spent annually to beat back the Sino-Soviet-Castro operations. This is known to the White House.

This is known to Secretary of State Rusk and Secretary of Defense McNamara who advised President Johnson the selection of the 16 distinguished citizens. Why was George Meany overlooked?

Pentagon In Politics

By David Lawrence

Admiral Speaks Out On Nuclear Controversy

The role of Pentagon high officials in the 1964 campaign is causing a good deal of wonderment. Did the administration authorize Admiral Harold Page Smith, supreme commander of NATO forces in the Atlantic, to issue a statement commenting on a subject that is a matter of widespread political controversy? If President Johnson did not do it, did someone in the Pentagon violate the long-time rule against participation by military men in politics?

Adm. Smith, according to a copyrighted article in the Norfolk (Va.) Ledger-Star, declared that any decision to use nuclear weapons should remain with the elected civilian head of government. The admiral was reminded by a member of his staff that the subject "is probably the hottest political issue in the country today."

"That may well be," commented the admiral in reply, "but this is a situation that exists."

Adm. Smith, who is also commander-in-chief of the U.S. Atlantic Fleet, has currently under his command 17 nuclear-powered submarines, carrying a total of 272 Polaris missiles. This, of course, involves a situation entirely different from the problems faced by the ground armies under the supreme commander of the NATO forces in Europe.

Recent newspaper reports inspired by the Pentagon, moreover, have misrepresented the true situation.

THUS, IT HAS been reported in some of the newspapers that those tactical nuclear weapons which are advocated for use in Europe to offset a land invasion have five times the power of the first atomic bomb dropped on Hiroshima in World War II. Some Pentagon officials, evidently for political purposes, have spoken of an "average" weapon as having a force equivalent of 100,000 tons of TNT.

The use of the word "average" confuses the issue, as it lumps together all the nuclear weapons in Europe—the smallest up to the largest. The latter have the high explosive power.

Actually, what has been recommended for the defense of NATO ground forces is the use of small tactical weapons like the Davy Crockett, which has approximately 40 tons of firepower, as contrasted with the 20,000 tons of the atom bomb which was used over Hiroshima. The tragedy of the whole debate is that there is really danger of a nuclear war arising, not necessarily from the use of small nuclear weapons such as Sen. Goldwater advocates, but from the inability of NATO forces in Europe to respond successfully to a Soviet attack. The situation then could become so grave as to bring on the larger nuclear war which presumably neither side wants.

A MOST significant article appeared in the Washington Star on Sunday, written by Marguerite Higgins, who is very familiar with such matters as a result of many years as a diplomatic and military correspondent, including coverage of combat operations in the second World War and the Korean War. In the article, Miss Higgins wrote: "Is there a gentleman's agreement between the White House and Gen. Lyman Lemnitzer, supreme commander in Europe, that would permit this American general, or his successor, to authorize American troops at the front lines in Europe to retaliate against a local Soviet nuclear surprise attack employing Russian tactical nuclear weapons on the ground?"

"Would Gen. Lemnitzer be able to give such authorization without having to take the precious—and perhaps fatal—elapsed time of the hour minimum that appears necessary to refer the matter to Washington for instructions?"

"The existence of such a gentleman's agreement has been persistently reported in recent weeks by high sources in NATO. And these sources claim to have been told of it, albeit somewhat obliquely, by high Defense Department officials."

"According to one of the highest ranking Europeans in the NATO structure: 'It does not seem realistic that any president of the United States would insist that American front-line troops must submit passively to nuclear Soviet attack on the ground since these troops would almost certainly be obliterated before there had been time to check back with Washington and obtain the order to defend themselves and fire back.'"

"This gentleman's agreement, according to NATO sources, applies only to instances where the Russians first employed tactical nuclear weapons in, for example, an attack on the city of Hamburg."

IN A WASHINGTON dispatch in the New York Times on Sunday, Jack Raymond wrote:

"There is a widespread assumption in Washington that in certain types of contingencies, the orders to use nuclear weapons have in fact already been issued in advance. Thus, in circumstances that clearly fit an anticipated situation, the battlefield commanders would need no further instruction."

The Pentagon ought to tell the American people the truth, and it should certainly not allow its military officers or its civilian officials to become identified with the political campaign.

Thinkalikes

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Sen. Strom Thurmond and Sen. Barry Goldwater are thinkalikes in so many ways it's no wonder they're apparently going to line up together.

Thurmond, a South Carolina Democrat, reportedly will announce tonight (1) he is going to support the presidential candidacy of Republican Goldwater and (2) switch from being a Democrat to being a Republican.

Here are just a few of the great issues on which the two men look like twins: the nuclear test-ban treaty, civil rights, and the $11.5-billion tax cut Congress passed this year. They were against all of them.

The last time anything like this switch happened was in 1952 when Sen. Wayne Morse, an Oregon Republican, turned his back on the presidential candidacy of Dwight D. Eisenhower, quit the Republicans, and supported Adlai E. Stevenson.

He didn't move over to the Democratic side of the Senate until 1954. But any comparison with Thurmond stops there. Morse is a liberal. Thurmond and Goldwater are two of the most conservative members of the Senate.

Thurmond, 61, and Goldwater, 55, are both major generals in the U.S. Reserves. Thurmond with the Army. Goldwater with the Air Force. Both served in World War II.

It wouldn't be the first time Thurmond abandoned the Democratic party. He did it before in 1948 over the civil rights issue and became the States Rights presidential candidate. He has been in the Senate since 1954.

He says he voted for Eisenhower in 1952 when Morse was voting for Stevenson.

Thurmond and Goldwater both voted against the nuclear test-ban treaty with the Soviet Union, passed 80 to 19 by the Senate in September 1963. Both voted against the tax cut last February.

Last June both voted against the civil rights bill. Thurmond, who has been consistently against civil rights legislation, said this year's measure was unconstitutional. That was Goldwater's argument, too, about two sections of it.

Both have complained about riots and "lawlessness" in the streets of cities. Both have advocated bombing Communist supply routes into South Viet Nam.

Thurmond and Goldwater have been highly critical of the Supreme Court. Goldwater no later than Tuesday. Thurmond has said some of the court's decisions have "been of great aid and comfort to the Communists."

Thurmond and Goldwater have both been critical of the Ku Klux Klan. Goldwater said he didn't want its support in this year's election.

Thurmond has said "the people as a whole in the South are not in accord with the feelings of the Ku Klux Klan. And I do not look for it to be very strong down there."

foreign aid from countries which continue to trade with Castro Cuba."

He blamed the administration's offer of credit for wheat sales to Russia for the increase in trade deals between "some of those who purport to be our friends" and the Communists. "Frankly, we can't fault them," he said. "We set the example they are following."

The Republican nominee concluded:

"We must establish a clear set of foreign policy objectives. We must establish a clear set of trade policy goals. Then we must see to it that they are meshed smoothly, with the prime consideration always being the preservation of the American system of private enterprise and individual freedom."

"WE MUST protect ourselves. No one else can—or will—do it for us," he declared.

The GOP congressional candidate was introduced by Allen Dalrymple of Wellsville, congressional candidate for the 18th District.

Atty. Charles Pike, county GOP chairman, introduced the following candidates: Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp of Salem; Nils Johnson, for judge of the 7th District Court of Appeals; Dalrymple; Clarence Wetzel, state representative; Charles Snyder of Salem, engineer; Richard Brian of East Liverpool, recorder; Walter Hunston of East Palestine and Galen Grenisen of Salem, commissioners; Warren Bettis of Salineville, prosecuting attorney; Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan of East Palestine; County Judge James L. MacDonald of Lisbon; R. Dale Miller of Lisbon, treasurer, and Dean Rose of Lisbon, clerk of courts.

HOOTENANNY musical entertainment was provided by the Campus Brothers, who were obtained and introduced by Larry Walton of East Liverpool, president of the Columbiana County Young Republican Club. B. L. Koffel of Lisbon led the pledge of allegiance to the flag. The Rev. Fred Shiltz, pastor of the First Methodist Church, gave the invocation and the Rev. Paul T. Gerrard, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, the benediction.

Lunch was served in the Floral Hall by all the Women's Clubs of the county, headed by Mrs. Claudia Cunningham and Mrs. Frances Brenner, co-chairmen.

Bobby Brue, Bruce Crampton, Gene Littler and Tom Nieporte birdied the par-4 tenth hole the first round of this year's U.S. Open.

Judge James G. McClure set arraignment for the defendants Thursday morning at 9:30.

Prosecutor Floyd R. Tarr said transcripts were not filed in time for the Grand Jury to consider the cases of Frank Schmidt, 36, and Robert Allison Higgins, 33, bound over on charges of attempted breaking and entering of Keaton's Tavern in Chester on Friday. The January Grand Jury will consider their cases, the prosecutor said.

The panel included William L. Grimm, Goldie Grimes, Donald R. Fletcher and Floyd S. Kell of Grant District, and Jessie V. Martin, Dean S. McKittrick and Howard E. Lewis of Clay District.

Wreck

received a fractured right forearm and lacerations of the face and Roland Ridgley suffered cuts of the forehead.

All three were listed in "fair" condition.

Robert Ridgley, who was headed west on W. 8th St., was charged by police with reckless driving and "failing to obey automatic traffic signals erected at street intersections."

The violent impact demolished Ridgley's 1959 two-door and a 1964 station wagon driven by Derr. It was timed at 5:35 p.m.

Derr told police he was headed south on Lisbon St. and had followed another vehicle through a green light when his station wagon was struck broadside by the auto.

Ridgley explained to officers that he was headed west. As he approached the intersection, he said two cars were sitting at the light.

The light started to turn green and he started through. Ridgley said, when Derr came through the light in front of him. The Lisbon man told police he applied his brakes but was unable to avoid the crash.

The impact shoved Derr's station wagon sideways in the eastbound lanes of traffic and Ridgley's car was blocking the westbound lanes, officers said. Police said the station wagon is registered to Ralph Compas of Litten Motors.

Firemen were called at 5:45 p. m. and remained at the scene for 45 minutes flushing gas and oil from the street.

Council Halts Traffic Plan At Wellsville

vey which he presented to Council. The survey showed the majority of residents favor the move.

"The councilman was just doing his job," Zirillo commented.

LOMBARDOZZI said he had visited Sterling twice. He said the second time he was told the firm favored the plan. He said it appeared in the newspapers seven weeks ago and no one from the firm raised any objection.

Lombardozi also commented that some of the signatures on the petition are in the same handwriting and that some do not reside on the street.

Later, when the legislation was presented for action, the move to table it carried by a 4-3 vote.

Councilmen Paul Todd, Mervyn Kenny, Aguin Bowling and Bill Stoddard voted to table the legislation while Councilmen Lombardozi, Walter Henthorne and Dwight MacLean opposed the move.

In other action, Council adopted legislation prohibiting passing on Commerce St. between 9th and 15th Sts. It was pointed out this is needed even if the one-way plan fails because the street is narrow.

COUNCIL also adopted a resolution granting permission to the Columbiana County commissioners to make repairs to the bridge crossing Little Yellow Creek at the floodwall. The sides and piers have deteriorated badly.

MacLean, street and light chairman, reported the Tri-State Asphalt Co. of Martins Ferry was to begin work today on sealing several streets. One section of Lisbon St. is to be black-topped.

J. S. Fisher of Regan Industries Inc. of Hoboken, N. J., asked for a franchise to install a television cable system in Wellsville. The firm was granted a franchise in East Liverpool.

Fisher said the firm would like to tie the two systems together. He said it would provide nine channels, with 12 as the goal. The coaxial cable would be attached to utility poles and the service run to the homes. He said a survey has been made of Wellsville by the firm's engineers.

FISHER said the cost has not been definitely determined although it will be kept at a minimum. Stoddard, franchise chairman, was directed to arrange a caucus session with Fisher to discuss the proposal.

Council ordered legislation authorizing the Board of Control to purchase 14 lots at the 13th St. park at a cost not to exceed $3,500.

When secured, it will mean the city owns the entire area. Presently one section of the park is privately owned.

Council also ordered legislation authorizing Safety-Service Director Fred Baldasare to advertise for sale of three police cruisers.

Two new cruisers have been ordered. Two of the old vehicles will be sold and the third kept for the use of the director.

Henthorne said he has been informed the city-owned car used by the director was seen in Steubenville. He also charged that Baldasare was charging gasoline to the city that was being used in his private car. Baldasare was not present.

COUNCIL members agreed the city-owned vehicle should be used only for city business.

The street and light committee was asked to investigate a request for a street light in an alley between 15th and 16th Sts.

A claim for $750 for damages to ivy and shrubbery at 125 3rd St. was filed by Mrs. B. Janet O'Hara, 245 Highland Ave., wife of Atty. Delmar T. O'Hara.

In a letter, she said 96 feet of the ivy vines and shrubbery were ordered removed from the yard of her 3rd St. property adjoining the floodwall by Baldasare on Sept. 9. She said she would settle for $500 if it is not taken to court.

The claims committee will investigate.

Henthorne commented in the past the vines had been trimmed when they grew over the top of the floodwall, but never removed completely.

PERMISSION to cut 70 feet of curbing at Commerce and 18th Sts. for a car wash was granted to Joseph C. Clement of East Liverpool.

B. D. Miller of 18th St. complained of a great number of cats in his neighborhood. He said the animals were creating a stench in his yard, along with a health hazard.

The dog warden is not authorized to destroy cats. Council informed Miller there is an ordinance that prohibits any animal to run at large and suggested he contact the mayor and file charges against the owners.

The rules committee will investigate a notice from the Ohio Liquor Control at Columbus on an application from Charles and Margaret Dickey of Aten Ave. for a C-2 permit for carry-out of high powered beer and wine. Council is informed of each permit that requires action by the state board. Council can approve or give a reason if it disapproves.

COUNCIL directed Wayne Rose, clerk, to write a letter of commendation to the Wellsville Jaycees for the Labor Day celebration.

Mayor William Daugherty's report for August showed $431.90 collected in fines and fees.

At the request of Henthorne, Rose was directed to write the Civil Service Commission asking for the number of persons employed in the city under Civil Service, the type of work they do and their job classification.

A letter was received from the commission listing the various departments covered or partially covered by Civil Service.

MacLean reported a dead tree at 9th and Commerce St. should be removed before it falls.

Henthorne asked the street and light committee to check two depressed sewer openings in the lower end of town. When hit by trucks, they cause nearby houses to vibrate, he said.

THE COMMITTEE also was asked to check the double yellow line on the main thoroughfare. Henthorne said it is illegal to cross a double yellow line and there are 12 places along the stretch that "blocks" alleys and entrances to places of business.

The monthly report of Auditor E. S. Davidson showed a balance of $141,523.24, with the floodwall fund $486.91 overdrawn.

Todd, president pro tem, presided in the absence of Mrs. Mary Rahter, Council president. The Rev. James Sanko of the Riverside United Presbyterian Church gave the opening prayer.

Firm Completes Resurfacing On 24 City Streets

The Ohio Tar & Asphalt Co. of Canton completed surfacing of 24 unpaved streets Tuesday.

Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey said today. The firm launched the job Thursday in the East End and completed streets in the Beechwood and North Side streets before moving to the West End and Pleasant Heights areas.

Under the low-cost program, now in its third year, neighborhood groups file petitions for the street improvements with the property owners and city sharing the cost. Income tax revenue is used to provide the city's share.

Ohio Tar received the contract this year on its low bid of 34.8 cents per square yard.

Gloom Then Joy After Vote Mistake Is Corrected

School officials turned from gloom to joy Tuesday night when the County Election Board's "flash count" of returns in the special school district election showed the building program had been approved.

Supt. Paul H. Blair and Asst. Supt. George Hargraves were pictures of despair for a few minutes when Frank R. O'Hanlon, election board clerk, said the issue appeared to have been defeated by 176 votes.

Alone in the office at the time, the two school officials were joined minutes later by Harry D. McConville and John R. Woomer, members of the Board of Education, who also expressed disappointment at the apparent result.

But as the election staff rechecked its figures received in the "flash count" phoned to the board's W. 6th St. office, O'Hanlon appeared at the door to announce there might be a change in the results.

Buoyed by the hope the issue might be approved, the four men took heart and Blair and Hargraves silently exchanged a "good luck" handshake.

When O'Hanlon announced the issue had been approved with a lead of 326 votes, the four were joyous. After quickly issuing statements and making a few phone calls, the four, joined by Richard Smith, another board member, left the office.

When the election staff completed an abstract of the unofficial returns, the final margin was 333 votes.

O'Hanlon explained the issue had first appeared to be defeated because one of the ward totals hadn't been included in the count.

The veteran clerk was almost as happy as the school officials but for a different reason.

He had estimated 6,000 voters would go to the polls and the unofficial results showed the number of electors was 5,997. "That's the best I have ever done," O'Hanlon said, "I can't do any better."

The election board was scheduled to begin its official canvass of the returns at 1:30 today in its office.

With only one ballot to be counted, the "flash count," which the board traditionally makes on major contests, was completed in the record-breaking time of 24 minutes.

Precinct 2-J was the first to phone the board's office, calling two minutes after the polls had closed at 7:30 p. m. to report 136 votes in favor and 69 opposed.

Officials of Precinct 3-B, which votes at City Hall, were the first to return the election supplies and the ballots, entering the office at 7:50 p. m.

The combined bond issue and tax levy squeaked through to victory by a 48-45 vote there.

Although it didn't affect the final count, one defaced ballot would have made a difference in Precinct 3-A where 30 voters were in favor and 30 were opposed.

Chance Blanks Yanks, Chisox Win, Orioles Beaten

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Eight percentage points blanked the three American League pennant contenders today and it's more than a Chance happening.

A good part of the credit, of course, belongs to Dean Chance, the Los Angeles Angels' marvelous right-hander whose two-hit, 7-0 mastery of New York Tuesday night helped send the Yankees reeling into third place in the flag race.

But Minnesota's Rich Rollins, who drove in both runs in a 2-1 close call over Baltimore that prevented the Orioles from padding their lead, rates a nod. So do Smoky Burgess, a 37-year-old AL "rookie," and Marv Staehle, a first-time swinger, who lifted the Chicago White Sox back into the second spot by engineering a 3-2, 10-inning verdict over Detroit.

The White Sox' victory put them one percentage point ahead of the Yankees, who trail the Orioles by seven points and 1½ games. Chicago and Baltimore each have 14 games left, five less than New York.

Chance, the league's top winner and No. 1 Yankee killer, breezed to his 19th victory and 10th shutout.

Smoky Homers First Time At Bat

Rollins' seventh inning double pulled the Twins into a 1-1 tie at Baltimore and his triple in the ninth broke the deadlock.

Burgess, whom the White Sox acquired from Pittsburgh Monday in an inter-league waiver deal, and Staehle, brought up Tuesday from their Indianapolis farm club, delivered key hits in their first league appearances.

Smoky's pinch hit homer off Tiger ace Dave Wickersham tied the score at 2-2 in the eighth and Staehle's pinch hit single in the 10th scored J.C. Martin with the run that broke it up.

Boston rookie Ed Connolly fired a two-hitter against Kansas City and the Red Sox cracked 14 hits for an 8-0 victory in the only other game played. The Washington-Cleveland game was rained out.

Bobby Richardson's infield single in the fourth and opposing pitcher Al Downing's seventh inning single were the only hits off Chance, who lowered his major league-leading earned run average to 1.49. He set LA season records of 253 2-3 innings pitched and 187 strikeouts Tuesday night, fanning eight.

Chance was locked in a 1-0 duel with Downing, whose seven strikeouts boosted his league-leading total to 196, until Joe Baltimore hurlers, followed a pinch single by Frank Kostro.

Back-to-back doubles by rookie Jay Ward and Rollins in the seventh matched the Orioles' run in the third, fashioned on a single by Jack Brandt, a sacrifice, intentional walk and Bob Johnson's RBI single.

Chicago's Martin opened the 10th with a single off Wickersham, who failed in his bid for victory No. 19. Martin reached second on winning pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm's sacrifice bunt and took third on a passed ball before Staehle came through with a hit to left.

Wickersham checked the Indians' losses this year are expected to surpass the $1.2 million the club lost in 1963.

White Sox on one run and three hits until Burgess homered in the eighth. The Tigers, held to two hits through six innings by Joel Horlen, scored both their runs in the seventh with the help of Don Buford's throwing error. Bill Freehan's infield hit delivered the first run and the other crossed on an infield out.

Connolly, who had lost 10 of his previous 12 decisions, held the Athletics hitless until the sixth, when Bert Campaneris doubled. The young southpaw struck out 12 KC batters and walked five. A four-run fourth inning, climaxed by Felix Mantilla's 26th homer, gave Connolly all the offensive support he needed.

Phils Ticket Plan To Cover More People

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The lucky fans who obtain World Series tickets for Philadelphia — assuming the Phillies win the National League flag — will be able to see perhaps only one game and, at best, two games under the club's ticket distribution plans.

If the Series goes the full seven games, four games will be played in Philadelphia.

McNea Will Screen Game Movies Tonight

Potter Coach Bob McNea will screen movies of the ELHS-Beaver Local football game tonight at 9 at the high school, with the public invited.

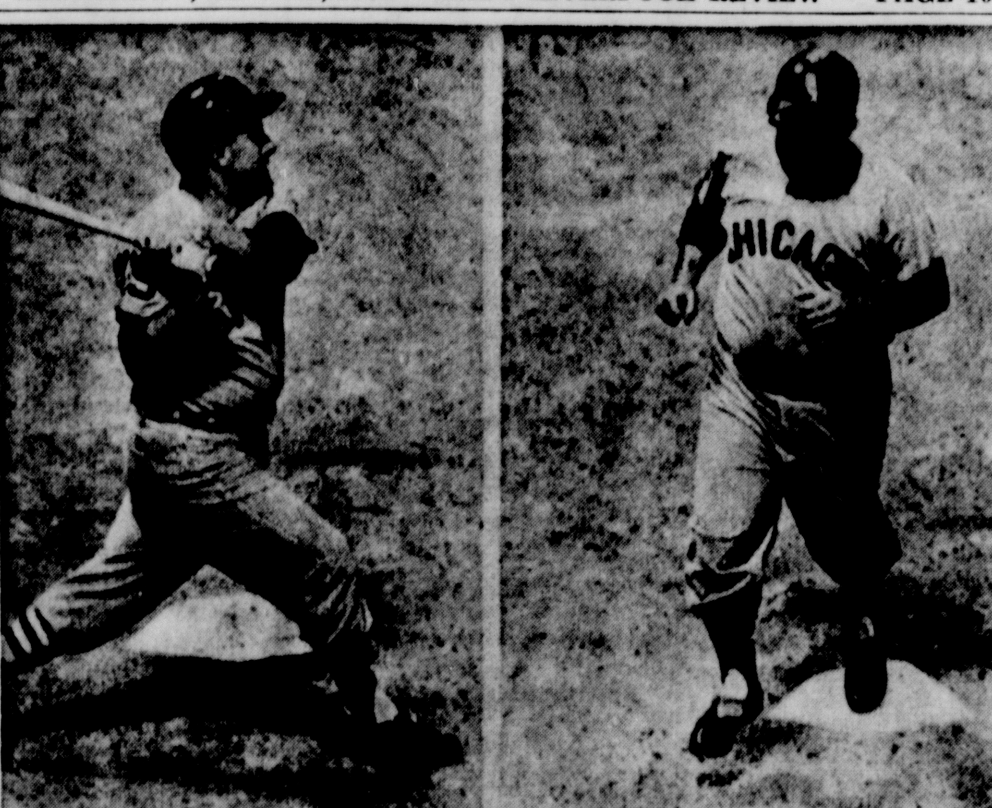

The movie will follow separate meetings of the Lady Potter Boosters Club tonight at 7:30 at the YMCA, and the Blue and White Nonpareil Club at 8 at Room 204 of the high school.

The two groups later will meet jointly to watch the movies of the game. Ted Burke and Mrs. Ralph Twyford are presidents of the clubs.

But, the Phillies announced Tuesday night, ticket sale will be limited to two sets of two tickets. The sets will be either for games one and seven or games two and six. Thus a fan can purchase a maximum of two tickets each for the first and seventh game or two tickets each for the second and sixth games. The sets will be allotted at the discretion of the Phillies. The Phils play in Connie Mack Stadium, which seats about 34,000. Under their ticket distribution plan, the Phils hope more fans will be able to see at least one game than was possible under the more-or-less standard distribution arrangements over the years. Most Series tickets have been sold in strips which covered all games in a park.

The Phils, six games in front in the National League, said they will accept ticket applications beginning at 12:01 a.m. Sept. 23.

For one set the cost would be $25 for box seats; $17 for reserved seats and $9 for bleacher seats. For two sets — the maximum allowed each individual — the cost is $49 for boxes, $33 for reserved and $17 for bleachers.

Chances For Indians Staying Are Brighter

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland General Manager Gabe Paul says the picture has brightened about the Indians' chances of staying where they are.

Paul, largest single stockholder in the American League baseball club, said he met informally Tuesday with 15 directors of the club and all agreed they want the Indians to stay in Cleveland.

"They are willing to keep the team here at a huge personal sacrifice," said Paul, who took over the club three years ago.

Paul once again repeated that he has made no commitment to move Cleveland to another home despite what he called fantastically attractive offers from 10 or 12 other cities trying to get the franchise.

What has made the offers from such cities as Dallas, Tex., Seattle, Wash., Atlanta, and Oakland, Calif., so attractive? Club directors note that each has guaranteed the Indians big television money and assured the owners of advance ticket sales in the neighborhood of $2 million.

Paul has revealed that the

Callison Delivers Again In Phillies 1-0 Victory

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Winning ball games is getting to be a habit with Johnny Callison.

The Philadelphia Phillies' outfielder whose ninth inning homer won the All-Star game for the National League in July, delivered the decisive blow again Tuesday night.

His sixth inning single scored Richie Allen from second base with the run that gave the pennant-bound Phils a 1-0 victory over the Houston Colts.

The Phils now lead the second place St. Louis Cardinals by six games with 17 left to play.

The Cards whipped Milwaukee in both ends of a two-night doubleheader 11-6 and 3-1. Third place San Francisco beat the New York Mets 3-1 while the Chicago Cubs dimmed Cincinnati's hopes 6-1.

The Giants and Reds now trail the Phils by 7½ and 8½ games, respectively.

Los Angeles downed Pittsburgh 5-3 in the other NL game. Callison's game-winning single followed Allen's lead-off double in the sixth. Dennis Bennett and Jack Baldschun shared the pitching honors for the Phils by yielding only four hits. Bennett, lifted for a pinch-hitter in sixth, gave up three of them.

Baldschun saved the game for Bennett by twice putting down Houston threats.

A five-run seventh inning gave the Cards their first game win over the Braves. Bob Gibson's four-hitter and Julian Javier's two-run homer defeated the Braves in the nightcap.

Javier's homer off rookie southpaw Wade Blasingame came with Mike Shannon on first and two out. That wiped out a 1-0 Milwaukee lead and accounted for the Cards' 17th victory in their last 22 games.

Juan Marichal pitched a four-hitter and Tom Haller homered for the winning run against the Mets to keep the Giants in contention, at least for second place money.

Larry Jackson became the first 20-game winner in the majors this season as the Cubs drubbed Cincinnati. Jackson yielded six hits, three of them in the first inning that accounted for the Reds' lone tally.

Willie Davis, Ron Fairly and Bart Shirley each got three hits to lead the Dodgers over Pittsburgh. Down 4-0, the Pirates pulled within 4-3 with two runs in the seventh before Bob Miller came in and saved the victory for Larry Miller.

The loss was another blow to Cincinnati's fading pennant hopes.

Several times in his 10-year career, Jackson has flirted with 20 victories but never made it. He won 18 with St. Louis in 1960 and last year he had a 14-18 record with the Cubs.

He appeared to be a cinch to win 20 his first year with Chicago but finished the season with seven straight losses.

"I was a better pitcher last year than this season," said Jackson, who finished last year with a 2.55 earned run average compared to his 3.31 this season.

"But even a good pitcher needs luck to win 20 games," said Jackson, who credits his success to his distinct slider and his control.

Jack's triumph over Cincinnati was his sixth straight. Four of the six hits he yielded came in the first two innings. He limited the Reds to two hits the rest of the way and said after the second inning he was as good as he had been earlier in the season when he blanked the Reds on one hit.

The Cubs could only get six hits off three Cincinnati hurlers. The loser was Bob Purkey (10-9), who was lifted for Joe Nuxhall in the second inning. Billy McCool pitched the last two innings and struck out five.

Reds acting manager Dick Sisler named Jim Maloney (13-10) to face the Cubs' Bob Buhl (13-11) in today's afternoon game.

It's a miracle Orioles remain in first place

BALTIMORE (AP) — If the Baltimore Orioles win the American League pennant, it will almost be anti-climatic. It's already a miracle that they still are in first place.

Manager Hank Bauer and his battling crew have survived a number of crises and somehow have managed to stay near the top of the pack.

On Aug. 23, after taking three of four from Chicago the Orioles led the White Sox by 1½ games and the New York Yankees by five.

Counting the second game loss in the Aug. 23 doubleheader, Baltimore has dropped 13 of 24 decisions. But even after losing to the Minnesota Twins 2-1 Tuesday night, the Orioles still hold a one-game advantage over Chicago and are 1½ ahead of New York.

Despite a 6-5 record on a recent road trip, Baltimore increased its lead from a half-game to one full game. The margin held again as the Orioles split a four-game weekend series with last-place Kansas City.

Lucas Signs Pact After Holding Out

CINCINNATI (AP) — Jerry Lucas, three-time All-America from Ohio State, has signed his contract with the Cincinnati Royals after holding out for one day.

Lucas, the National Basketball Association rookie-of-the-year last season, signed Tuesday and went to the Royals training camp at Oxford, Ohio.

Terms of the contract were not disclosed, but it was reported Lucas received an increase over his $35,000 salary of last year.

Lucas set a team record of 40 rebounds in one game last year, and averaged 17.7 points a game. He was the only rookie on the NBA All-Star squad.

The Royals are training at Miami University for the first time, and Tuesday coach Jack McMahon sent them through their first scrimmage. The Royals' exhibition schedule opens Sept. 29 in a game with the U.S. Olympic basketball team here.

LISBON — Lisbon area horsemen will charter a bus again this year to attend the Little Brown Jug race at the Delaware County Fair Sept. 24. Reservations must be made by Sunday with Mayor Dean Stockman or Dick Stockman.

Jackson Wins 20th Game For 8th Place Chicago

By JOE MOOSHIL
CHICAGO (AP)—It isn't often that a pitcher for an eighth-place club wins 20 games.

In fact, the last one to do it with a full season in the National League was Frank (Noodles) Hahn with eighth place Cincinnati in 1901. Hahn's record was 20-19.

Now comes Larry Jackson of the Chicago Cubs, who are destined to finish eighth in the National League. Not only did Jackson, an industrious 33-year-old righthander, notch his 20th victory Tuesday beating Cincinnati 6-1, but he became the first in the majors to reach the coveted plateau this year. Jackson has had 10 losses this season.

The loss was another blow to Cincinnati's fading pennant hopes.

Several times in his 10-year career, Jackson has flirted with 20 victories but never made it. He won 18 with St. Louis in 1960 and last year he had a 14-18 record with the Cubs.

CINCINNATI (AP) — Jerry Lucas, three-time All-America from Ohio State, has signed his contract with the Cincinnati Royals after holding out for one day.

Lucas, the National Basketball Association rookie-of-the-year last season, signed Tuesday and went to the Royals training camp at Oxford, Ohio.

Terms of the contract were not disclosed, but it was reported Lucas received an increase over his $35,000 salary of last year.

Lucas set a team record of 40 rebounds in one game last year, and averaged 17.7 points a game. He was the only rookie on the NBA All-Star squad.

The Royals are training at Miami University for the first time, and Tuesday coach Jack McMahon sent them through their first scrimmage. The Royals' exhibition schedule opens Sept. 29 in a game with the U.S. Olympic basketball team here.

Middies Picked Over Penn State

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — They are playing college football under liberalized substitution rules this year but the new code doesn't have a thing to say about forecasters who might be okay on offense but have absolutely no defense at all when their picks go awry.

With no protection from the law-makers, here is the first trip down Upset Gulch this season.

Constellation Victory Brings British Groans
LONDON (AP) — Sovereign's defeat by Constellation in the first race of the America's Cup series brought familiar groans from the British today and hardly a hope that the cup will be won from the United States.

The London Times correspondent reported from Newport, R.I.: "The most dismal predictions of British supporters were confirmed."

Al Lang Field in St. Petersburg, spring training base for the Cardinals and Mets, will have night baseball exhibition games next spring.

Learning the result of the "flash count," which was completed by the County Election Board within 25 minutes after the polls closed, Harry D. McConville, board president, and Supt. Paul H. Blair issued statements expressing their thanks to the voters and to those who had worked for passage of the issue.

Expresses Gratification

"I'm so happy I really don't know what to say," McConville said. "I am grateful to the voters for the confidence they have shown in the school board and in the city's future," he added.

Blair declared, "I believe this is an indication that a majority of residents are sincerely interested in the welfare of the youth of the community."

"I believe this will start a new trend in education in this part of the state, and that things we have been striving for will become a reality. I am truly indebted to the people of this community and I am personally grateful to all in the district who put forth so much effort to make the campaign a success."

"As chief administrator I will strive more diligently to provide a better educational program for our youth."

Promotion Group Praised

Richard Smith and John R. Woomer, other school board members who were in the election board office when the count was announced, also extended their thanks to voters, the Citizens Committee for Better Schools, which waged an intensive campaign for passage, Blair, The Review and WOHL.

Smith termed the vote "a team victory" and said he had been confident the issue would be approved, citing the heavy support received when the board asked renewal of a tax levy last spring.

Woomer commented, "We will try to justify the confidence of the voters by providing good schools. We will try to keep them more informed than they ever have been in the past."

The program calls for a 48-

room high school and three consolidated elementary schools.

Site On Maine Blvd.

The board announced Monday that it has an option with Standley T. Hilbert to purchase a 33-acre tract off Maine Blvd. and near Trinity United Presbyterian Church as the site for the high school.

No specific locations for the elementary schools have been announced other than they will be erected in the East End, North Side and Pleasant Heights - LaCroft - Glenmoor areas.

The Bosco property is no longer being considered for a school site, Supt. Blair said this morning.

Two of the elementary schools are to have 25 rooms and one will have 23 rooms.

The board some time ago retained Robert F. Beatty, city architect, to prepare plans for the new schools subject to approval of the bond issue.

Tuesday's election climaxed a long discussion dating back several years when the late Ralph W. Betts, school superintendent, warned various school boards they should seriously consider the problem of Central School, in particular.

IN APRIL 1963, State Department of Education officials made a survey of city schools which declared a new senior high school should have first priority but cautioned that many of the elementary buildings also were in need of replacement.

Last November, Ohioans approved continuance of a one-cent cigarette tax to provide $250 million for building programs in colleges, universities and public schools.

In January, the school board submitted an application for purchase of classroom facilities from the fund to assist in construction of new buildings.

In May, the district was one of 14 in the state among 57 which applied to be authorized a loan of $990,958. It was the fourth highest amount approved by the state.

THE SCHOOL board voted July 20 to place the issue before the voters at the special election yesterday, which fell within the 120-day time limit imposed as one of the conditions of the loan.

Whitey Lockman, third base coach for the San Francisco Giants, hit .325 as a rookie outfielder with Springfield, Mass., in 1943.

Dewey Lowe

Dewey Wilbur Lowe, 45, of Cow Hollow Rd., Ohioville, was found dead in a dry creek bed near his home Tuesday morning and the Beaver County coroner indicated he may have taken his life with an overdose of barbiturates.

Dr. John Colavincenzo, coroner, ruled the cause of death was undetermined but that several bottles of pills were found near the body.

Mr. Lowe had been under medical care at the Veterans Hospital in Pittsburgh. He probably died about 4 p. m. Monday. Final ruling will wait a report from the state laboratory at Harrisburg.

An Army veteran of World War II, Mr. Lowe was born June 10, 1919, in Belleville, W. Va. He was an unemployed laborer.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Martha Lowe, a patient at the Beaver County Hospital in Brighton Township; two sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Woodyard of Smiths Ferry and Mrs. Eleanor Kelley of Brighton Township, and four brothers, Millard Lowe of Washington Bottom, W. Va., Charles Lowe of Lancaster, Ohio, Lester Lowe of West Bridgewater, and John Lowe of Brighton Township.

Private services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the Schwerha Funeral Home in Midland by the Rev. William Bell, pastor of the Vanport Presbyterian Church. Burial will be in Oak Grove Cemetery. There are no calling hours.

two weeks vacation, although he never asked," Hissam commented.

Council also began receiving applications today for the $4,500-a-year patrolman's post and will act upon the applications as they are received, agreeing that there will not be a short deadline.

Special officers aiding Police Chief Harold Davis will receive $1.50 hourly until the patrolman's post is filled.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor breath". Get FASTEETH at drug counters everywhere.

CHICKEN POX IS USUALLY A MILD DISEASE

Probably caused by a virus, it generally attacks children between two and six years old. After exposure its incubation period averages 16 days during which time a slight fever, headache or backache may occur. Then comes a series of rashes.

It is important to call a physician. For scratching can cause an erysipelas infection or an abscess. Mouth lesions may affect the larynx. An adult attack can be more serious, so grown-ups should avoid exposure.

Jaycees Review Plans To Host District Event

Plans for hosting a district meeting were reviewed at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the East Liverpool Junior Chamber of Commerce Monday night in the Chamber of Commerce office.

The session will be Oct. 20 at the Casting Club. Gary White is in charge of arrangements. Robert Lewis of East Liverpool, district vice president, will conduct business.

It was reported 75 motorists halted at the Jaycee coffee stop conducted on Labor Day on Route 30. Twelve pounds of coffee and 35 dozen doughnuts were consumed.

The professional wrestling show was termed successful. Some 1,700 attended the event the past weekend at the Memorial Auditorium.

The Jaycees will sell stadium cushions as a fund-raising project, beginning at the first home game of the Potters.

The Jaycee Clowns participated in the Labor Day celebration of the Wellsville Jaycees.

Atty. Jackman Vodrey attended his first meeting as a regular member of the board. He was appointed last month to fill a vacancy. He reported on the petitions being circulated by Jaycees seeking a ballot place on the formation of a park commission for Thompson Park.

It was announced George Hales will head the publication of the Jaycee Comment. Richard Chadwick outlined the program scheduled for the All-State meeting Sept. 26-27 at Columbus.

John Parsons reported on the work of the constitutional revision committee.

Al Fricano was reinstated as a new member. He had withdrawn his membership while attending school at Cleveland.

Dale Kidd, president, conducted business. Next meeting is Oct. 12.

Bert Breakiron, new superintendent of community relations for the Crucible Steel Co. at Midland, will be guest speaker at the membership meeting Sept. 28 at the Travelers Hotel.

If you haven't 1/4 teaspoon and 1/4 teaspoon measures, use a level teaspoon of a dry ingredient and subdivide it when a recipe calls for these lesser amounts.

'Remarriage Of Divorcees' Gets Attention Of Ministers

A discussion of the statistical, scriptural and cultural background on the subject "Concerning the Remarriage of the Divorcee" was led by the Rev. Russell Mase at the first fall meeting of the East Liverpool Ministerial Association Monday morning at the Oakland Free Methodist Church. Rev. Mase is pastor of the Emmanuel Presbyterian Church.

The 12 clergymen present discussed how they could assist when confronted with the problems pertaining to the subject by consulting one another.

During business, conducted by the Rev. Charles Kampmeyer, president, the Rev. H. Gene Toot, associate minister of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church, moved that the group request the cooperation of civic organizations in not scheduling meetings on Wednesdays in order that church groups may center their activities on that night.

The association also decided to send a letter to the Boy Scout Executive Committee to not schedule training sessions for leaders on Sundays. The group's constitution was revised. Reports were given by the Rev. John Stiltz, pastor of the Orchard Grove Methodist Church, recording secretary; the Rev. Albert Rodenhause, First Baptist, corresponding secretary, and Maj. William Hathorn of the Salvation Army, treasurer.

The Rev. Harold Estel, host minister, led devotions. The next meeting will be Oct. 5 at the Oakland church.

Tie together some celery tops, a large bay leaf and a branch or two of parsley to use as flavoring for soup or stew. Keep a spool of heavy white thread in the kitchen to use for such binding.

Judge Tobin, Salem Tavern Men To Meet
LISBON — Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin has asked Salem area liquor permit holders to meet with him Friday, Sept. 25, from 9:30 to 11 a.m. in his courtroom at the Courthouse. The meeting is on a voluntary basis and is not compulsory, but he said he hopes there will be a good attendance so he can go over several matters in efforts to keep minors from obtaining intoxicating liquor.

Salem has had several fights and injuries caused by juveniles obtaining and drinking liquor, he said. This is a public meeting and any interested person may attend, Judge Tobin said.

Thurmond Set To Bolt To GOP, Sources Claim

COLUMBUS, S.C. (AP) — Sen. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina will bolt the Democratic party tonight and become a Republican supporting Sen. Barry Goldwater for president, according to several sources.

Thurmond, who carried South Carolina, Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi in the 1948 presidential election as the States Rights party candidate, is expected to announce his decision in a television speech from Columbia at 6:15 p.m. EST.

Advertisements in several newspapers in South Carolina and North Carolina today said Thurmond's appearance on a two-state television hookup "will be of vital concern to every thinking citizen."

"Strom Thurmond voices his convictions," the ads said. "Watch history being made!" Small print at the bottom of the ads said they were paid for by the South Carolina Republican party.

The Columbia Broadcasting System says Thurmond, 61, has decided to become a Republican because he believes "there should be a realignment in American politics — with all liberals in one party and all the conservatives in the other."

Several sources in South Carolina also say Thurmond will bolt the Democrats.

Former Chief Agrees To Theft Ring Quiz

FAIRMONT, W. Va. (AP) — Police say Lottie O. Van Meter, 51, former police chief of Munroe Falls, Ohio, has agreed to return to Ohio for questioning by Akron authorities in connection with an alleged $75,000 tire theft ring in Summit County.

Van Meter was arrested here Monday on charges of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution. Police said he had been sought since last November.

Americans drink 76,500,000 gallons of bourbon a year.

Kennedy Girl Is New Pupil At New York School

NEW YORK (AP) — The Convent of the Sacred Heart, a Catholic school for girls, has a new pupil — Caroline Kennedy. Hand-in-hand with her mother, the 6-year-old daughter of the late President John F. Kennedy went to her first day of school Tuesday. She wore the school uniform, a gray flannel Eton jacket, matching pleated skirt and a white blouse.

Some nuns and pupils watched from a second-story window of the school at the corner of Fifth Avenue and 91st Street as Caroline arrived.

Caroline's aunt, Mrs. Peter Lawford, wife of the actor, and Sydney Lawford, 8, accompanied Caroline and her mother. Sydney is entering the school, too.

The two girls moved through the chattering groups of pupils with apparent ease. Caroline entered the second grade. Last year, she attended special classes at the White House.

Killed In Accident

INDIANA, Pa. (AP) — Hugh A. Johnston, 63, of Youngstown, Ohio, was killed Tuesday when his small truck and an unoccupied car it was towing plunged down a 20-foot embankment along Route 56 south of Armagh.

Nov. 9 Slated For Legislature Special Session

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The situation on a special session of Ohio's legislature remained the same today. Nov. 9 is the probable date, with Gov. James A. Rhodes still maintaining official silence on a definite commitment for that date.

The Nov. 9 date became an almost "certain" one with disclosure that Atty. Gen. William Saxbe would file a brief in federal court Friday. It will say that the governor plans to call the session then to show Ohio's "good faith" in carrying out congressional redistricting.

But Rhodes declared that the brief and the date are "subject to review"—and there the matter stands. He is expected to make a definite decision within the next few days.

There had been some published reports saying flatly that the governor had issued a call for the Nov. 9 date. But this was denied by the governor's office.

Driver Forfeits Bond

LISBON — John Nelson Beverly, 22, of 125 W. Washington St. forfeited a $15 appearance bond Tuesday night in Mayor Dean Stockman's court on a charge of speeding. He was cited by police earlier Tuesday on E. Lincoln Way.

Newell IOOF Group Sets Birthday Dinner

Harry Hutton, vice grand, presided at a meeting of Clark Odd Fellows Lodge 447 of Newell Monday night in the IOOF Hall. A slide program by Thomas Dover of Penova Lodge was postponed.

The 447 Club met later, and plans were made to hold a coverdish birthday supper Oct. 9 at the lodge hall, with all Odd Fellows and their wives, and members of Rebekah Lodge 74 and their husbands invited. A project to panel the social rooms is now under way. Next meeting is Monday night.

Music Aide Introduced To Band Mothers Group

Miss Judy Hall, new music instructor, was introduced by Vincent L. Maola Jr., band director, during the meeting of the ELHS Band and Orchestra Mothers Monday night in the band room in the MA. She has assumed direction of the string section of the music department.

Miss Hall, a 1964 graduate of Kent State University and a native of Akron, was formerly a member of the Akron Symphony.

Maola announced acceptance of an invitation for the band to appear at the Stanton Local Music Festival Oct. 17. The ELHS Twin Marching Bands will be featured, he said.

It also was announced that an article concerning the band and a picture showing band members with the new fiberglass tubas recently purchased by the organization is currently appearing in "Connchord," a magazine distributed to high schools and colleges throughout the United States.

Discussion was held on band accommodations for a visit to Philadelphia, Pa., Thanksgiving Day when it will appear in a Christmas parade.

Maola urged members to support the Civic Music Association in its current drive.

Mr. K Claims New Soviet Weapon Could Kill All Life

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev says the Soviet Union has a new secret weapon which could destroy all life on earth. His words seemed to be aimed primarily at Red China and not at the West.

Khrushchev, who did not describe the weapon, was speaking to a Japanese parliamentary delegation Tuesday. The Japanese said he mentioned the weapon during a blast at Chinese Communist leader Mao Tse-tung.

Khrushchev accused Mao of wanting to take over Soviet territory. The Japanese said Khrushchev told them the Soviet Union had a new weapon, but "if you live among wolves, you should howl like a wolf."

He told them that Soviet military men and scientists on Monday had showed him "new means of destruction" which he said he was amazed to learn which could destroy all life on earth. His words seemed to be aimed primarily at Red China and not at the West.

The Japanese delegation, told a news conference today that he had the impression that Khrushchev was referring to one weapon, not several.

In Washington, U.S. government experts said Khrushchev might be talking about a cobalt bomb, which would produce huge amounts of lethal, long-lived radioactive fallout; "death ray," possibly a highly concentrated, intense beam of light; a neutron bomb that would destroy life without damaging structures in the target area, or some major advance in chemical or germ warfare.

The Japanese said Khrushchev did not say specifically that the new Soviet weapon is nuclear, but they understood him to mean that. They said after telling them of it, he discussed the need to use nuclear energy for peaceful purposes.

Officers Elected By Church Group

Karen Murphy was elected president of the Christian Youth Fellowship at the first meeting Sunday evening in the Midland Methodist Church.

The group is comprised of boys and girls from the Methodist and Presbyterian churches.

Others elected include Harry Boyd, vice president; Becky Craik secretary; Susan Callahan, treasurer; and Jeanne Petroosky and Lynn Petroosky, representatives to the Advisory Board.

The Advisory Board is comprised of the Rev. George H. Bohlender, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. Stanton River, Methodist.

George Baacke, superintendent of the Methodist Church; Frank Timblin, Sunday School superintendent of the Presbyterian Church; and Lloyd Murphy and Mrs. Joseph Rasillo, Methodist Church.

Patrol Reports 2 District Mishaps

An area driver and an East Palestine motorist escaped serious injury when their cars veered off highways in separate mishaps Tuesday.

J. D. Barnhouse, 25, of 175 E. Martin St., East Palestine, suffered a bruised back when his 1963 sports auto overturned along Route 14 about two miles west of Unity at 8:45 p. m.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Barnhouse was headed west when he lost control on a curve and the auto skidded off the left side of the road and upset down an embankment.

He was charged with speeding.

Morley C. Marsden, 26, of R. D. 9 was headed south on Route 170 early yesterday morning when his car went off the right side of the road about five miles south of Negley and into a ditch.

There are 650 Roman Catholic bishops in Latin America.

Which 'Jack' Settled

Pughtown Man's Name Goes On Hancock Ballots

The question of which "Jack" of two will be given a ballot place for Democratic county commissioner in Hancock County's general election Nov. 3 was shuffled around again Tuesday.

And county ballot commissioners apparently dealt Squire John S. (Jack) Bryan of Pughtown a pat hand.

Facing a deadline for turning over specifications of election ballots to the printers, the bal-

The action settles, at least for the time being, a puzzling legal question of whether Squire Bryan or Jack Evans of New Cumberland will be the Democratic commissioner candidate.

However, further litigation and appeals may be forthcoming in an attempt to override the decision and have the name of Evans placed on the November ballot.

The question arose in May when the old Democratic executive committee headed by Dick Wright of Chester advanced Squire Bryan as the candidate for the commissioner's post made vacant by the death of Robert E. Roach of New Cumberland.

But Wright was later deposed as executive chairman, by Atty. Edward A. Zagula of Weirton. Atty. Zagula's new committee endorsed Evans, a painting contractor, as the party's candidate.

Unable to determine which of the two names to give a ballot place, Grossi called on Prosecutor Floyd R. Tarr for an opinion, and Tarr in turn asked for an opinion from Atty. Gen. C. Donald Robertson.

On Aug. 28, the Circuit Court clerk's office confirmed that Claude Joyce of the attorney general's office called by phone to forward Robertson's opinion that Squire Bryan should be the Democratic candidate.

But in a letter to the prosecutor later, the attorney general said he would display a "hands-off" policy on the issue because of litigation that would arise regardless of which candidate he ruled for.

The attorney general in his letter said he had received several phone calls on the issue and learned that litigation was expected in the courts regardless of whether his opinion was for Squire Bryan or Evans.

Thus, the ballot commissioners received the question and ruled Tuesday for Squire Bryan, 36, an employee of Weirton Steel Co.

Barring further litigation, Bryan will be paired against Republican Albert (Jakie) Fucy for the county commissioner's post from Clay District. Evans is serving as interim county commission successor to Mr. Roach. Atty. Richard Barnes of Wellsburg, his counsel, said he is not expected to reach a decision on whether to appeal the ruling of Tuesday to the State Supreme Court until Thursday or Friday.

Meanwhile, Grossi is to turn over specifications of the ballots to the printers this Saturday.

periodically, and Councilman Donald Hissam of the Third Ward commented that "everyone in town deserves that service."

Mayor Abrams said the police officers roll up 35 to 40 miles on an eight-hour shift on patrol duty "so they are not sitting at a service station."

Council Felicitates Pair On Anniversary

Chester City Council ordered a resolution of congratulations drafted for former Police Chief Floyd (Doc) Lyons and his wife Tuesday night.

The former officer and his wife are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary today. Lyons was police chief for about 30 years.

Councilman Charles Kology of the First Ward declared most of the speeding motorists are from Ohio, and are "young kids."

Clerk Roy Cashdollar commented one officer alone can operate the radar system, pointing out this is the customary practice in East Liverpool. Kology pointed to a number of speeding arrests with use of the radar in East Liverpool.

"When will the radar system be fixed?" Johnston inquired of Mayor Abrams, who replied he has "no idea" of the date when the equipment will be repaired.

"When was the last arrest for failure to obey a stop sign?" Kology inquired. Mayor Abrams said he didn't recall, and Kology remarked, "Why put stop signs up when the violators are not arrested," and cited instances in which he said he witnessed violations every morning. Mayor Abrams replied he has observed motorists stopping regularly.

Councilman Walter McSwegin of the Fourth Ward was asked to present a report at the next meeting on a study of the use of the upstairs of City Hall by the Hi-Teens and Kiwanis Club.

Several members expressed dismay at the present practice of allowing free use of the upstairs to the Kiwanis Club for meetings and the youngsters for dancing, pointing out the building is badly in need of repairs.

Cashdollar said most cities rent a building for the youngsters. "There are very few places fortunate enough to give them a spot; we just want them to pay their share of expenses."

Kology commented the last electric bill amounted to $114, and pointed out the charges of natural gas heating will go up in the winter.

Hissam said 100 youngsters usually attend the functions in the upstairs, paying an admission charge of 25 cents each. He said the floor had been sanded three years ago, yet is marred by deposits of chewing gum. "I have nothing against the Hi-Teens, but they should pay their way, or the functions should be made free of charge."

McSwegin is to present a report on a study of the present use of the upstairs hall at the next meeting Oct. 6. Cashdollar reported remittances of $1,137.19 and bills of $1,770.46 were ordered paid.

The outside of the heart is called the pericardium.

Mekong Delta Still Explosive

2 Leaders Of Attempted Viet Coup Are Arrested

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Two of three top leaders of Sunday's attempt to overthrow Premier Nguyen Khanh were in government custody in Saigon today, but the situation in the populous Mekong River delta remained explosive.

Maj. Gen. Duong Van Duc was reliably reported under house arrest in Saigon and division and armor from Saigon Monday morning after his commander, Duc, capitulated to loyalist forces. Ton returned to Saigon by helicopter and presumably also will face some kind of charges. Trouble still was brewing in his command area.

Brig. Gen. Lam Van Phat, the initial commander of the rebels, was reported still in My Tho. Phat denounced Khanh as a traitor to the nation in a broadcast Sunday after his forces seized Saigon. Presumably he faces more severe punishment than the others.

Loyalist generals in Saigon appeared to be exerting more control over government developments than Khanh himself. Air force Commodore Nguyen Cao Ky appeared to be the key man.

Calling for a purge of "corrupt and divisive" members of the officer corps, Ky said five commanders involved in the weekend rebellion already had been ousted and he believed 9 or 10 other senior officers should go.

Ky said five generals exiled to the mountain city of Dalat after Khanh seized power last January should not be allowed to return to duty as Khanh had indicated they would.

Ky said the five, all supporters of Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh, South Viet Nam's figurehead chief of state, were "obsolete, unnecessary and incapable."

"They must be kicked out," he declared.

Now is the time for young, honest, capable and idealistic men to be aware of their responsibilities," said Ky, who is 34.

He said the government must be turned over to civilians within the next month and a half, as promised by Khanh, and that they should have as much time as the military did to see if they can run the country.

Six Drown When Bus Plunges Into Canal

FORT PIERCE, Fla. (AP) — Six and possibly more farm laborers drowned today when a bus carrying them to work plunged into an 18-foot-deep canal southwest of here and disappeared beneath the water.

Six bodies were recovered and a deputy at the scene said: "There may be more. Nobody got out."

Divers from the sheriff and fire departments continued the search.

The driver of the bus was believed to be Foley Pinkney of Fort Pierce. The bus was bound for the O.L. Peacock ranch where the men are employed.

The reason for the wreck, in a remote area, was not learned immediately.

Wilson's Resignation Accepted By Rhodes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes today accepted the resignation of Department of Development Director George E. Wilson with what he said was "sincere regret."

Wilson announced his resignation recently—effective next Jan. 1.

An Akron native, Wilson took over as director of the new department in January 1963 when Rhodes began his term. Wilson said he plans to set up a private development company early next year.

During Talk At Rotary

Taft Hits Administration On Three Critical Issues

American voters must direct their attention to the issues at hand and not be swayed by "personalities," Robert Taft Jr. declared here Tuesday.

With that opening comment, the Republican aspirant for a seat in the U. S. Senate proceeded to define what he considers the most important campaign issues of the fall, attacking the Johnson Administration on three fronts — foreign policy, national economy and states rights.

The Congressman — at large, son of Ohio's late Sen. Robert A. Taft, jabbed at the party in power in a half-hour address before the Rotary Club at the Travelers Hotel.

ONE OF THE largest crowds to attend a Rotary luncheon in years heard Taft call for American voters to make up their minds on the candidates on the basis of the issues at hand, rather than letting "personalities" or labels influence their decisions on election day.

"This is a tough campaign on all sides regardless of party, and American emotions are being moved more than in the past, perhaps by the international situation or personalities," he declared.

"But the issues transcend everything else and such labels as extremism and other associated words do not contribute to a sound decision by the voters."

Turning to foreign policy, Taft said "there are splits here between the two parties."

"There are a great many men, evidently more in this administration than its predecessor, who are convinced and are convincing Lyndon Johnson that they are likely to make more progress with a soft position against the Reds unless challenged, like in Viet Nam."

"THIS WAS laid out before the people in the Cuban crisis of 1962," Taft declared. "Behind it all are two groups — hawks, who want a strong policy, and doves, who wish a weak policy and back away."

"The doves ultimately prevailed, I believe, although the hawks made them face up and take a firm stand."

But he declared there was the failure to follow through with an inspection of Soviet ships and an embargo on Cuban shipping. He said there are 240 ships now on a "black list," compared with 196 some time ago, indicating a tremendous increase of foreign ships dealing with the Communist island.

Taft accused the Democratic administration of "relying on Associated Press dispatches to follow the turmoil in Viet Nam." He declared the wire service predicted by three or four days the recent development in Viet Nam before the government woke up and admitted it was taking place.

"If we fail to face up to the threat of Communist aggression in Viet Nam, we can only foresee the same thing happening in Malaysia, Burma and India, with the rest of the free world threatened," Taft continued.

IN ADDITION to foreign policy, the Republicans also differ with their opponents on national economy, Taft said.

He warned that the Detroit auto industry settlements are a signal of danger. "We are in serious danger of a new price-wage spiral."

He suggested similar agreements could filter down to big steel, for example. Likely to trigger increased prices, he said, the settlements "increase the cost 4 1/2 to 5 per cent over the percentage in excess of 3.2 per cent set as the guideline by the administration to hold inflation in check."

Taft, elected to congress in 1962, said he voted against tax cut legislation because he regarded it as inflationary.

He accused Johnson's administration of perpetual deficit spending. "Sooner or later, we'll have to face the music," he warned.

TAFT SAID Johnson's budget was described as being $1 billion lower than the one submitted by the late President Kennedy, but is actually $5 billion higher.

"The voters were entitled to the truth. They are trying to hold the figures favorably now, but next year, and the next year, there will be an increase in deficit spending."

Turning to another issue, the speaker declared the "separation of powers" between federal and state government has been breaking down under the party now in power.

"The state has certain areas it will best handle, and state government should be kept as close to the people as possible," he said.

After discussing the three campaign issues, Taft responded to several questions.

On the nation's space program, Taft said he felt a sound, well-developed effort is required but perhaps military advantages could be emphasized more than now, for proper defense. After all, he said, "we can't attack on earth from the moon."

On proposed financial disclosures of U. S. senators and others in elective office, he explained he had introduced a bill in the House calling for every Congressman to file annually a statement of income and liabilities — not for public use, but for a committee review and investigation.

"We need a high code of ethics among members of the Congress," he said. He said the public has lost confidence because of a few who have abused the privileges of office.

"The Baker case gave Congress a real black eye, and should have been fully investigated," Taft said.

On Medicare, Taft said he feels the King - Anderson Bill "contains the seeds for medical care to be controlled by the federal government."

Taft, grandson of President William Howard Taft, was introduced by John C. Thompson, program chairman.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I would like to say a word to that young woman who was terrified at the prospect of having a child because she could not stand the pain.

Before I was married I was equally terrified—and I know why. My mother and my aunt used to compare agonies in my presence when I was a child. It was as if they were engaged in a contest to see who had suffered more.

A physician whom I will call Dr. G.D. changed my life. I married at the age of 32 and had my first child at 33—with no anesthetic and no pain. Dr. G.D. taught me abdominal breathing and started me on a course of exercises which enabled me to give natural birth. (I had four children in seven years.)

The women who suffer are the ones who are frightened. Most of the fright comes from having heard horrible tales from older women, who also were frightened.

I hope you will print this letter and let millions of people know that childbirth should be the most rewarding and satisfying experience in a woman's life.—VOICE OF EXPERIENCE.

Dear Voice: Dozens of women wrote in praise of natural childbirth. You letter was one of the best and I hope it will help other women escape the bondage of fear.

Silent Type

Dear Ann: Is it normal for people who have been married 16 years to run out of conversation? My husband never was a live wire, but at least he was alive.

I saw this coming five years ago and tried to interest him in dancing lessons, bowling, cards and new friends. He told me to please leave him alone, that he was satisfied with things as they were.

We have three active children, two teen-agers and a boy, 7. They are beginning to notice their father is a stick-in-the-mud. My husband's job is strenuous and demanding and he needs his rest but there should be more to life than work and television.

I'm afraid I'm turning into a nagger, Ann, but what can I do—accept things as they are and count my blessings?—OUT OF THINGS TO SAY.

Dear Things: If three active children don't keep you sufficiently busy and stimulated, get involved in club work, politics and your church. And please get off your husband's back, Lady. You can't force new interests on people who don't want them.

If you knew how many husbands suddenly become too darned lively after 40, you'd be happy to see "Old Stick-in-the-Mud" sitting in front of the TV set night after night. He may not be a jamboree, but at least he's at home where he belongs.

Word Of Expert

Dear Ann: Who are the "experts" to whom you refer? Recently when someone asked about a free second cup of coffee in a restaurant you said you counseled with your "coffee expert" to determine how much it costs to pour a cup of coffee.

A few days later in response to a letter from a Catholic you referred to your "expert on canon law." The letter about the woman who was buried in expensive jewelry brought forth another such reply—this time it was your "expert" on Illinois burial laws.

No matter what the problem you always have an "expert." Are these experts for real?—CURIOUS OF T.C., MICH.

Dear Curious of T.C., Mich.: They'd better be for real or I'm in trouble.

I consult with authorities in a variety of fields to provide my readers with the best answer possible. When I say I have consulted with "an expert" you can be sure I did indeed check with someone specializing in that particular field.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Constitution Day Fete Held By Area Kaycees

Wilfred Herbert of Canton, new master of the Eastern District of the Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus, was guest speaker at the annual Constitution Day dinner of the Cardinal Mercier Assembly Sunday night at the St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Salineville. About 60 members and wives were present.

Jack Johnston was master of ceremonies; Fr. Wallace Kosen, host pastor, gave the benediction, and Fr. Frederick Anzino of St. John's Church in Summitville, the benediction. James McGowan, faithful navigator of the assembly, presided.

Crumb stale sponge cake and roll ice-cream balls in it. Serve with chocolate or butterscotch sauce. This combination is a popular one that has been served for years by a famous New England inn.

Brothers Due Arraignment

LISBON — Two Lisbon area brothers face arraignment on burglary indictments returned in the Columbiana County Grand Jury's final report Monday afternoon before Judge Raymond S. Buzzard.

Richard Ellsworth Cusick, 23, and Robert Eugene Cusick, 27, of Lisbon R.D. 2, were indicted for burglary of Harry's Tavern in Salem on June 4.

The cases of Howard Adams, 44, of Lisbon R. D. 4, accused of assault with a deadly weapon in allegedly attacking Eugene Hicks with a butcher knife, and that of Shirley Green of East Palestine, accused of issuing a fraudulent check at the B. & M. Dry Cleaning in East Palestine, were ignored.

The jury of nine women and six men indicted 29 defendants in 31 cases. Three were secret indictments.

In the report of the county jail inspection, the jury said it found that the rules set up by Common Pleas Court were obeyed in all respects.

Arraignment for those indicted will be held Sept. 28 at 9 a.m. before Judge Buzzard, who will hear criminal trials this term.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Take Measures To Prevent Larger Sizes

It is feminine logic that most women insist on squeezing into size 14 or 16 — with minor adjustments, of course—rather than break down and take the next size.

Changing to a larger size almost seems like giving up! What if the dress does have to be eased a little around the waist and over the hips — just so it's marked your proper size. As long as you can squeeze into your regular size you feel optimistic. You haven't gone beyond the point of no return.

But there comes a day! What to do? On your fall shopping trip, if the saleswoman, oh, so tactfully, suggests another size, don't bristle. Take action. IT IS fairly easy to slim down five pounds, or even ten. But you do have to act. And there is no time like the present, for just a bit later when the frost is on the pumpkin your appetite will sharpen.

Just cut out the extras. Leave off the jam on your breakfast toast, or use a low-calorie jam or jelly. If you are a sweet roll and coffee gal, try having a poached egg on a thin slice of toast. That affords better nutrition and more staying power for fewer calories.

Those of you who eat lunch at home, plan something hot such as an ounce of cheese broiled on a thin slice of toast, some sliced tomato and a cup of tea or skim milk. Those who order lunch out, skip the dessert.

At the evening meal, have a satisfying portion of lean meat, fish or chicken, and a couple of vegetables. If one vegetable is a starchy variety, then skip the bread. If you have gravy, restrict it to one tablespoonful, and take a measured amount of dressing on the salad. Keep the dessert within 100 calories.

JUST A LITTLE calorie trimming is all that it takes. The important thing is to cut that vacation appetite down to size—now.

Add an isometric streamliner to your daily program and restore tone to the muscles which bound the sides of the silhouette. Try this all-in-one streamliner:

Stand in doorway, arms braced against doorjamb, elbows bent. Stand with left foot back, right leg slightly forward with knee bent. Push vigorously against doorjamb, and hold the pressure to a count of eight. Relax and repeat. Change position of feet and again push against resistance. Don't forget to pull up snugly with the abdominal muscles as you push. Send stamped, self-addressed, long envelope for Eat To Build Leanness and Isometric Exercises. Address request to Ida Jean Kain, care of The Review. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

When you blanch almonds at home, be sure you dry the nuts thoroughly after the brown skins are removed. Turn the nuts onto paper toweling, pat off excess moisture, then let stand overnight, if necessary, at room temperature; or dry without toasting in a warm oven.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruze —

Dear Folks: I've been making cornbread pones and cooking cornbread in iron skillet for 20 years, but not until this week did I learn how to keep pones from sticking to the iron pan.

Some precious reader told me to grease the heavy pan first, then to sprinkle it with corn meal (as you would ordinarily flour a cake pan), put it in the oven or broiler until the corn meal turned brown and then pour in the batter. She said the pone would never stick, but would come out with the flip of a knife.

Naturally, I doubted it. Who wouldn't?

Well, I tried it and hereafter will never cook cornbread pones or cornbread in a skillet any other way.

The pones didn't stick or break, but came out just like our dear reader said . . . with a slight flick of the knife.

Not only that, but I found the pans easier to wash! The cornbread doesn't stick to the pans.

I will love this woman to my dying day and that's just how long I intend to keep eating cornbread now that I've found an easy way.

CORNBREAD HELOISE.

P. S.: And just for variation, try adding a dash of vanilla to the batter. I did and it was wonderful.

I have also used sage in cornmeal batter when having fowl and dressing, or pork chops.

And what's wrong with trying other extracts, such as lemon, when serving fish?

DEAR HELOISE: Before tweezers, try squeezing and pulling the inside of the tweezer's points along the sticky side of a piece of adhesive tape.

You'd be surprised how much better a grip this gives the tweezers.

ALICE WOOLAWAY.

DEAR HELOISE: When children are ill and must stay in bed, it's difficult to give them fruit juices or other liquids without having some spill on the bed or on the child's night clothes.

I solved this problem by punching a hole in the screw cap of a half-pint jar with an ice pick. Then I poured the liquid into the jar, put the lid on tightly, and inserted a drinking straw through the hole in the lid.

Children love this idea, and so do I . . . no more spills.

MARTHA.

DEAR HELOISE: I found the simplest way to cover a hot water bottle is to take two finger-tip towels (they are an exact fit), sew the two sides and one end together, and that's it.

With either snaps or zipper, or just safety pins to fasten the open end, it's done in a jiffy. And nothing could be easier to launder.

R. H.

Also . . . the softness of the towels makes the hot water bottle more comfy!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When cutting plastic bleach and detergent bottles with scissors or a knife for various uses, heat the bottle under hot water first.

The bottles can even be held under the warm water while cutting, and it is almost like cutting paper.

Young To Give His Position On Political Issues

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Sen. Stephen M. Young planned to make his first statement today on where he stands on various political issues, but his opponent for his Senate seat, Robert Taft Jr., has made no indication whether he will accept Young's challenge to follow suit.

Young said he will release in Washington late today a 1,000-word "position paper" on extremism.

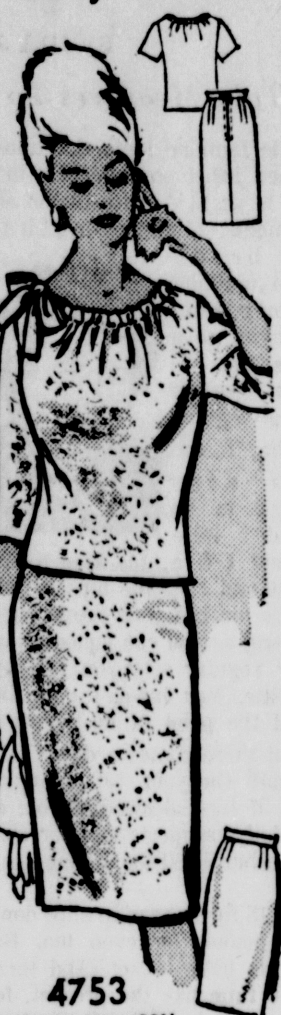

Thursday and Friday the political spotlight will swing to the state conventions of the two political parties in Columbus.

The Republicans will hold a one-day conclave Thursday. Highlights of that meeting will be the appearance of William Miller, the GOP vice presidential nominee, and Barry Goldwater Jr., eldest son of the presidential candidate.

The two-day Democratic convention opens Friday, and the featured guest will be the nation's First Lady, Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson.

The wife of the President plans to be in Akron Thursday and she will come to Columbus the following day for a luncheon meeting of the Federated Democratic Women of Ohio.

Murder Indictment Asked In Wife Slaying

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — The Montgomery County grand jury will be asked to return a first-degree murder indictment against Nathan L. Honcell, 23, in the slaying of his 19-year-old pregnant wife, Rosella, last month.

A motion to suppress Honcell's alleged confession was overruled by Municipal Court Judge Cecil Edwards Tuesday, and he ordered Honcell held for the grand jury without bond. Honcell was arrested in New Mexico Aug. 31, a few days after his wife was found fatally shot in their East Side apartment.

Urban Roads Are Pushed By Scranton

HARRISBURG — Extensive enlargement of highway planning and programming for the urban areas of the state was ordered Tuesday by Gov. William G. Scranton.

He said that future governors will have to figure out how to finance the construction.

"I do not see how we can look to pay-as-you-go taxes as the answer," Scranton said. "Pennsylvanians already are paying high gasoline taxes."

"It looks as if heavier reliance on borrowing, with the cost of construction spread over several generations of motorists, is among the more likely ways for Pennsylvania to solve its dilemma," the governor said.

Scranton said that planning and programming now — with the actual construction at least two years in the future — will allow for future flexibility in deciding on exactly what to construct and just how to pay the costs.

"Pennsylvania can head for disaster if we work only one administration at a time," Scranton said.

Church Society To Hold Festival

Plans were made for the annual fall festival of St. Aloysius Parish when the Holy Name Society of St. Aloysius Catholic Church met Monday night at the school.

Fr. Carl Nicolay, pastor, will be chairman of the fund-raising event Oct. 16-17 in the school.

Mike J. Sweeney, president, presided. The group voted to donate funds to outfit two members of the St. Aloysius grade school football squad, and other church organizations are to provide additional uniforms.

Next meeting is Oct. 5 at 8 p. m. in the school.

Presbyterian Men's Group To Hear Pastor

The Rev. Mark Allen of the Toronto United Presbyterian Church will be guest speaker at a meeting of the United Presbyterian Men's Organization Monday night at 6:30 at the Riverside church of Wells-ville.

This will launch the fall season. Rev. Allen will speak on his civil rights work the past summer in Mississippi.

Ed Pugh will conduct business. A dessert-luncheon will be served.

Volunteer Mothers Aiding Teachers

A number of grade teachers attract mothers to come to school and help them in the classroom. These volunteer mothers may help the teachers with keeping necessary records. They may aid children in the middle and upper grades in finding and assembling materials and equipment for various projects in arts and dramatics, and in their search for facts in books at school or in a library.

No doubt mothers can do most and get most for themselves by reading to small groups of children in the kindergarten and primary grades. Some teachers and other adults may, occasionally, be effective at reading aloud to a whole classroom of young children.

BUT IT is not easy to do so. Reading to a group of three, four or five children, while these children look at the illustrations in the book, can be far more effective. Besides, the smallness of the group has great merit for the children.

Four, five or more mothers could be reading in the same room to these small groups of children simultaneously. As a rule, the children in each group limit their attention to the story of their own group. What a fine lesson in concentration! Such reading by volunteer mothers might also prove profitable in the middle or higher grades.

Sometimes these volunteer mothers may discuss with a small group of children a book she and they have already read. Or she might eagerly listen while a child in the group tells enthusiastically about a book he or she has read.

Imagine how exciting it might be, several days later, this mother and a few other children of the group will also have read this book and talked together about it enjoyably. Incidentally, a certain great teacher once told me she read every book she had her children read. Many teachers don't, alas.

A VOLUNTEER mother might go with a small group to the school library, or the public library farther away, to look over certain types of books appealing to the children. In some primary classrooms there is a large, round, low table filled with a variety of books. Little children browsing among these books may want to have certain books read to them. If one or more visiting mothers were there then, what a boon they could be to the eager, listening children.

Though the teacher ordinarily uses good English as she guides and teaches her children, they get a much wider exposure to good verbal expression when many stories and poems are read to them.

I wish that practically every teacher in the kindergarten or primary grades would consider the possibility of enlisting the aid of a number of mothers — each to spend a few hours a day in her classroom, reading to one or several little children there—and that during most of the school day one or more of these mothers would be there for this service.

WHEN THE visiting mother can contribute such easy service, she comes to feel comfortably at home in this classroom. Having this at-home feeling, she eagerly observes and tries to emulate the teacher's calm, kind and skillful ways with the children. She soon begins to ask the teacher about good ways of guiding her child at home more happily.

The volunteer mother reading to little children at school may also choose to go to her local library and read to children there. Imagine what good might be done, especially in slum areas, if there were ample local libraries there.

See what a powerful influence in these directions a teacher of nursery school or kindergarten, or a primary teacher in a culturally deprived area, might have. As you know, the younger the school child, the closer his teacher may get to his parents. My bulletins, "Why Read to Baby and Young Child," "Helping Your Child at Home in Early Steps of Reading" and "Home Helps for Poor Readers I and II," may be secured by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to me in care of The Review.

Young differed over a compromise sense of Congress proposal dealing with legislative reapportionment decisions of the federal courts. Young voted for the compromise, which was defeated, 42-40, and Lausche voted against it.

Dear friends,

Yes, there is such a thing as an "expensive" funeral. Any funeral is expensive if the cost means hardship to those who survive. That is something which always should be considered.

Many clients have talked this matter over with us frankly, and they have found that the problem can be solved without detracting from their natural desire to pay fitting tribute.

Complete information is yours for the asking.

Police Stop Beatles Show In Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—It was a swinging affair at Public Hall—the Beatles raised the roof and police lowered the curtain.

The old rectangular building hadn't seen such a blast since Republicans nominated Alf Landon for the presidency in 1936.

The Beatles, here Tuesday night for a one-night performance, were swivel-hipping through "all my love" when police inspector Carl Bare rushed on stage, yanked the microphone from John Lennon and shouted, "The show's over."

It was the first time a Beatles show has been stopped on their current American tour.

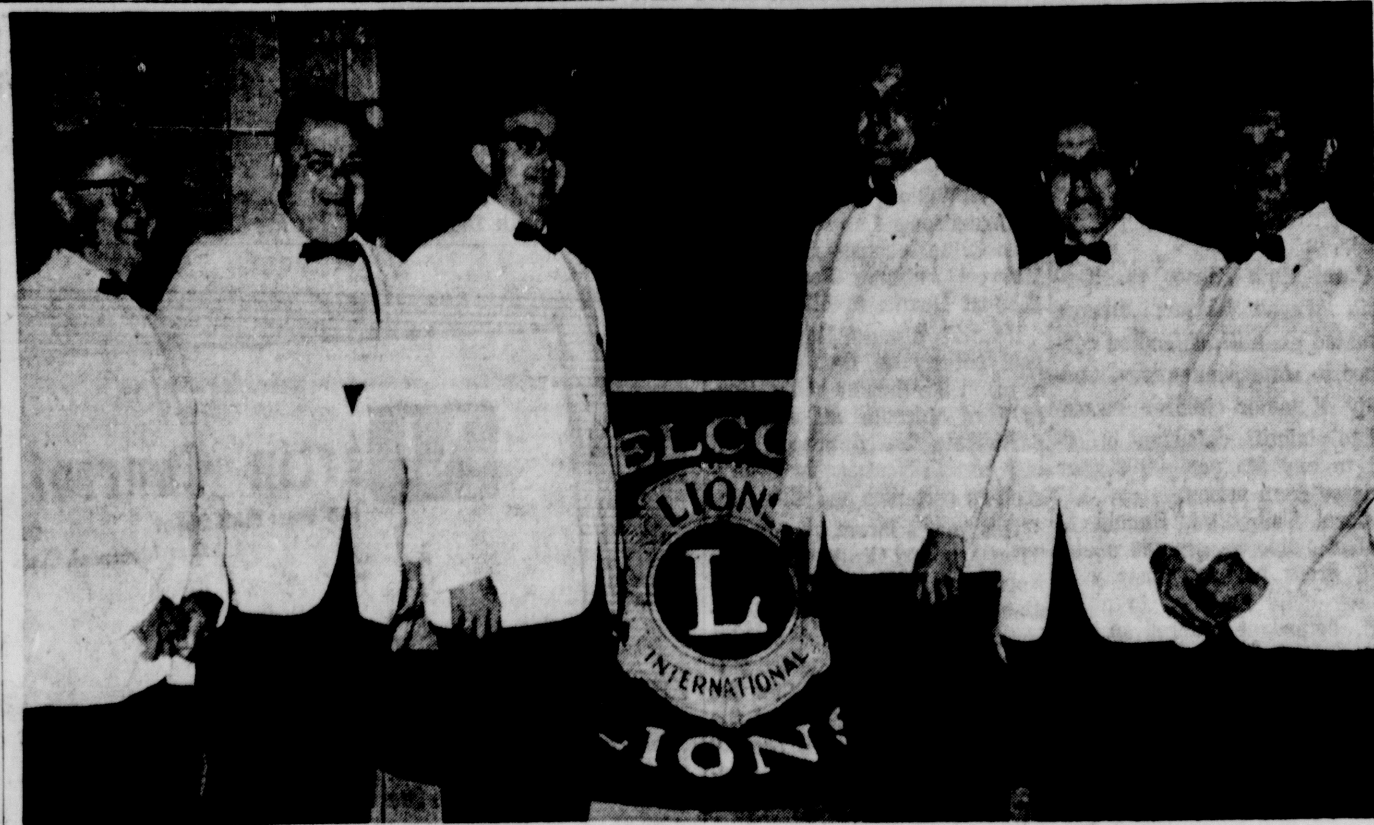

The wail of despair was deafening from the crowd of 11,000, many of them youngsters who stood in line seven hours with tickets purchased weeks ago. The show had been on 10 minutes.

Minutes before, youngsters had rushed up the three aisles toward the stage. The crush came in the middle aisle. About 40 policemen stopped the first surge at a temporary brass railing 10 feet in front of the stage.

The kids were determined to get near their mop-topped idols and kept pushing. More police plugged the gap until they were four deep.

"If we hadn't stopped the show someone would have been killed," Bare said. "The kids were jammed in the middle and there was a little girl underneath. She could have been trampled."

For a black eye, apply a cold compress immediately for about 15 minutes per hour.

Mullen of Ohio View, representative of the United Steelworkers of America, International Union, District 20; William C. Pouring the specimen is Jack Petrosky of Midland, a first helper in the open Hearth department. The specimens from Crucible and the other steel plants will be sent to the Battelle Memorial Institute of Columbus, where they will be remelted into a single ingot of stainless steel. A nationally-known sculptor will use the ingot as part of a "Century Two Steel Symbol" to be placed on permanent exhibition in one of the nation's prominent cultural institutions.

Hancock College Unit Opens And Tuition Exceeds Costs

The Hancock County Branch of West Liberty State College commenced classes Monday with tuition receipts exceeding the operating cost by $5,682 for the first semester.

Supt. Robert H. Hall told the Hancock County Board of Education Monday night he is "well-pleased" with the financial picture for the first semester.

The branch college is holding classes at the sprawling Weir High School complex in Weirton where all the buildings are new.

Supt. Hall, in a detailed report, said the college commenced with 45 full-time students who paid tuition of $9,200, and 116 part-time students, who paid tuition of $10,183.

Cost of the first semester of operation will total $13,701, including salaries of two full-time instructors $6,700, and 11 part-time instructors, $5,719, and one secretary, $1,282.

Thus, the total tuition received amounts to $19,383, and the cost will be $13,701, leaving a balance of $5,682 to carry over to the second semester.

"I am well pleased with the beginning. These are all first semester freshmen, and next year we'll have freshmen and sophomores classes, and additional students in the second semester this year. The college looks very good," Supt. Hall said.

Everybody Can Play TV's Rating Game

A television producer and a television writer both received calls recently (their wives actually answered the phone) from desperate-sounding girls. The girls were making random calls for American Research Bureau, a TV rating service, and trying to place viewing diaries in these homes for a week.

The producer and the writer are still in semi-shock. Both have been victims of ratings at one time or another, but never did they expect to be eyeball to eyeball with this predatory beast, so to speak.

"PLEASE DON'T hang up," pleaded the girl who called Harris Katleman, executive vice president of Goodson-Todman. "We are running a service which will determine the programs you'll see on your TV set this season."

"When my wife told her we would take the diary," recalls Katleman, "she practically screamed, 'You would?' Apparently she'd had a lot of turn-downs."

The Katleman family includes three children, aged 10, 8 and 4, and they all know Daddy's shows. On the Wednesday their diary started, the Katlemans dutifully sat down that very morning and watched "The Price Is Right," "Get the Message," "Missing Links," "To Tell the Truth" and "The Match Game"—all Goodson-Todman-produced shows.

"I COULD HAVE stacked our shows on that diary all week," says Katleman. "They don't ask who you are or what you do. The only qualification is your willingness to keep the diary."

Katleman and his family made a conscientious effort to record their viewing habits for the designated week, but found it tedious and inconvenient. They did not mail it in, as instructed.

"On that first Wednesday night my 10-year-old son said, 'Dad, don't you think we ought to watch Beverly Hills?' He actually thought it wouldn't look good in our ARB book if the 'Hillbillies' wasn't listed, and now I wonder how many other diary families figure that way," says a more embittered Katleman.

THE TV WRITER receiving the ARB call was Mort Lewis, who has written many dramas for the medium and watched nearly all drama series on TV shot down by sponsor and net-

School Guidance Unit Revises Constitution
LISBON — Revisions of the constitution were submitted and accepted when the Columbiana County School guidance group met Monday afternoon in the Episcopal Church.

The group will assist committees to be established in the comprehensive mental health study for Columbiana County.

Oklahoma U. Students Mix Politics, Sports
OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Oklahoma University student Democrats mixed politics with sports Tuesday.

They want an Oklahoma football victory over Texas but oppose former OU grid coach Bud Wilkinson, Republican nominee for the U.S. Senate, and Sen. Barry Goldwater, GOP candidate for president.

The students came up with some new auto bumper signs that read: "Beat Barry, Bud and Texas."

Ballistics Tests Due In Hunting Fatality

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Sheriff's investigators say a ballistics examination will be made on the .22 caliber bullet which killed Dennis Willis, 17, of Kettering while he was hunting in Warren County.

Willis and three other teenage boys were hunting squirrels near Waynesville Tuesday. The other boys said each had gone his own way and several shots were fired. When they rendezvoused they found Willis mortally shot.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I avoid the tedious and exacting chore of painting strips of putty around my window glass?

A.—One good way out of this chore is to mix a little paint of the desired color with your putty before applying it. Use the thick pigment from the bottom of the paint can, and knead it until the color is uniform.

Q.—How can I easily sew material that must be held tightly?

A.—Cover a brick with a thick padding, and use this to pin the fabric that must be held tightly while the work is in progress.

Q.—How can I renovate soiled white tapes on Venetian blinds?

A.—You can improve the appearance immensely by applying white shoe polish to them, using an old toothbrush as an applicator.

A Junior Editors Quiz About BEES' WINGS

QUESTION: How many wings does a bee have?

ANSWER: Katrina, whose father is a beekeeper (you can see him in the background with a head net hanging from his hat) is answering the question in the picture. There are two wings on each side, but when the bee flies, little hooks hold the two wings together so they actually act as one. Flight is very important to the bee colony, as they need nectar and pollen from flowers — the nectar for making honey and the pollen for other kinds of food — and these must be gathered through the flights of the worker bees as they buzz actively from flower to flower. In performance of these duties, a bee needs to master all kinds of aerial acrobatics, such as hovering in one spot to look the flower situation over, slipping sideways from flower to flower, or backing up to withdraw the nectar or pollen from the flower. A worker bee is expert in all these maneuvers. It is interesting that hummingbirds, who also live by sucking nectar from flowers, have the same ability to hover and fly backwards like a helicopter, something not possessed by other birds. After having found good nectar-bearing flowers, a bee comes back to the colony and runs around the honey comb in a kind of dance, which seems to tell the other bees where to find the supply.

FOR YOU TO DO: The honey bees, with their complicated social lives, are among the most fascinating things in the animal kingdom. Find out more about them.

Marie Alden of Orange, Mass., wins today's combined prize of Compton's Illustrated Science Dictionary plus $10 cash for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review and you may win the weekly grand prize of Compton's Pictured Encyclopedia.
